Manteca "79"

Ladies and gentlemen may
I have your attention
please. Our film production is about to begin. Before it begins I would like to explain a few things. This film is to remember the memories of your high school days. So 20 years from now you will see those good old days at Manteca High like they were yesterday. This production is in color and black and white. The producers are sorry that they couldn't give you more color but the inflation of the 70's has caught up with them.

Thank You,

Tower Staff

COMEDY

the laughter in life

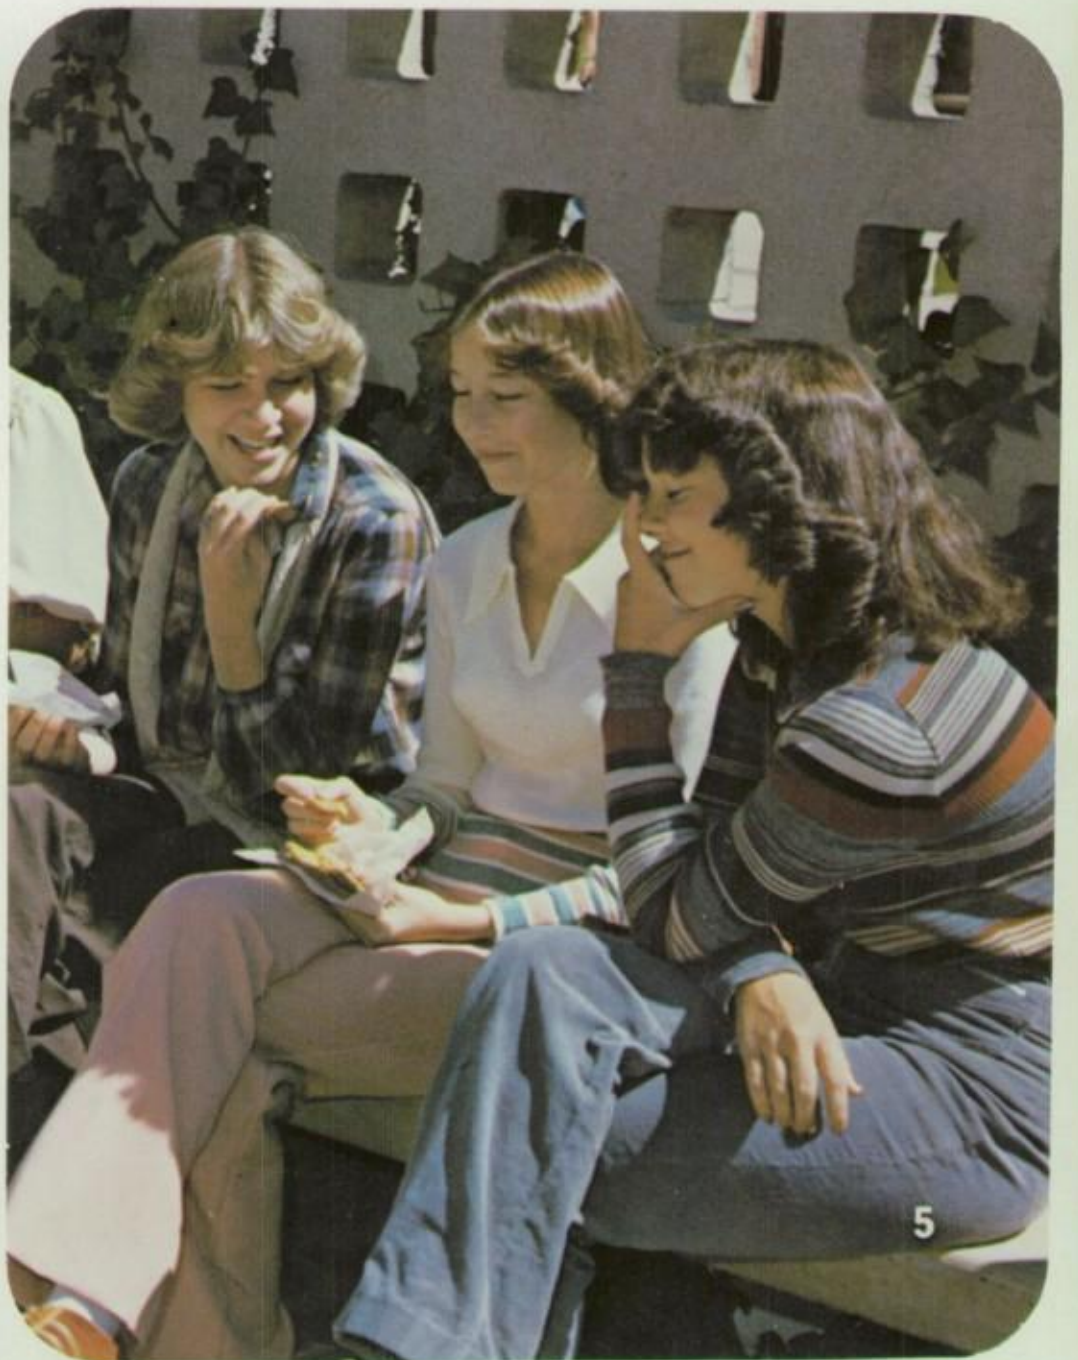

Today and tomorrow
Are still to come true
Filled with laughter or sorrow
It's all up to you

For today I pick laughter
I'll dance and I'll sing
But tomorrow is open
For what fate may bring

We pray for the blessings
That fate may be kind
But our future is often held,
Locked in our minds

Diane Drury

(1) Freshman girls show their spirit at the first rally of the school year. (2) Mr. Founts, a modern caveman of the 70's, sets an example for the school during Homecoming Week. (3) Jack Lewis slaps Robbie Steves with a piece of pizza at the Block "M" pizza party. (4) Kim Lawrence and Chris Whitlock shout their spirit with the rest of MHS Pep Band at St. Mary's, the first away game.

(1) Margy Kane turns her head in embarrassment as a certain guy gives her the eye. (2) Rosemarie Ellings giggles at some of America's ways. (3) Spirited seniors display their enthusiasm at the Homecoming rally. (4) Linda Morenzone is caught up in the laughter with the junior class. (5) Lori O'Brien, Julie Fiore, laugh at some silly freshmen as Jill Scharman recalls a time when they did something similar to that. (6) Kelly Breshears, Diane Micheletos, Donna Simpson and Tev Machado goof off between class for the camera. (7) Antionette Machado finds some of her mistakes on her rather humorous layout.

the seriousness in life

(1) Government students listen to a very interesting speaker. (2) Mr. Fairbanks, Mr. Swenson, Mrs. Rodgers-Vieira and Mr. Elliot watch the freshman orientation with intense concentration. (3) Drama class practices for an upcoming play. (4) Randy Ross keeps his spirit when things look grim. (5) Freshman students do have some serious moments.

Tragedy and Comedy are the principle forms of drama.

Life is a drama of all emotions, of struggle, humor and spiritual devotions.

Humor conflicts may exist although only if we persist.

Daily we perform on the stage of life. The act may be success or strife.

Dramatist's control the plot.

Do you wish a happy ending or not?

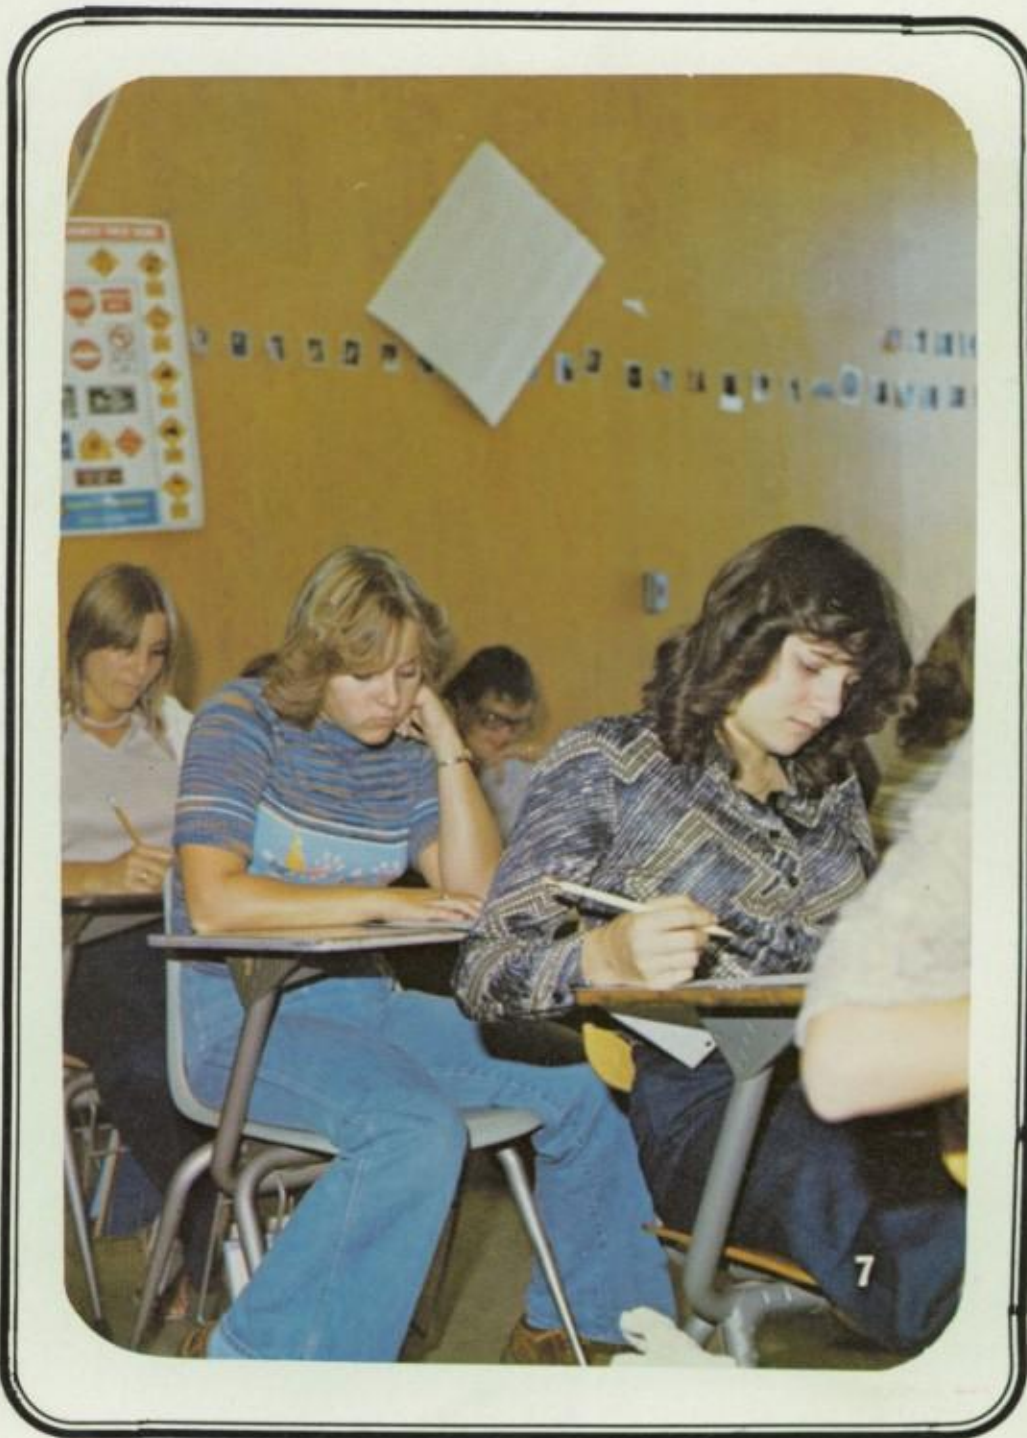

As a dramatist in your own right you will guide your future plight.

The curtains are closing now.

Will you be able to proudly bow?

(1) Jack Lewis thinks seriously about drinking his milk. (2) Sherry Shaw is worried about all the competition at cheerleading tryouts. (3) Concerned looks on the faces of future cheerleaders. (4) Alice McIntire points a stern finger at Kim Cook telling her to go to class. (5) Mark Adams talks seriously to Mr. Fairbanks about his class changes. (6) Mrs. Yost and Mrs. Teunissen work very energetically at their daily work. (7) Sharon Butler and Teresa Sappington look worried as they take a test.

the thrill in life

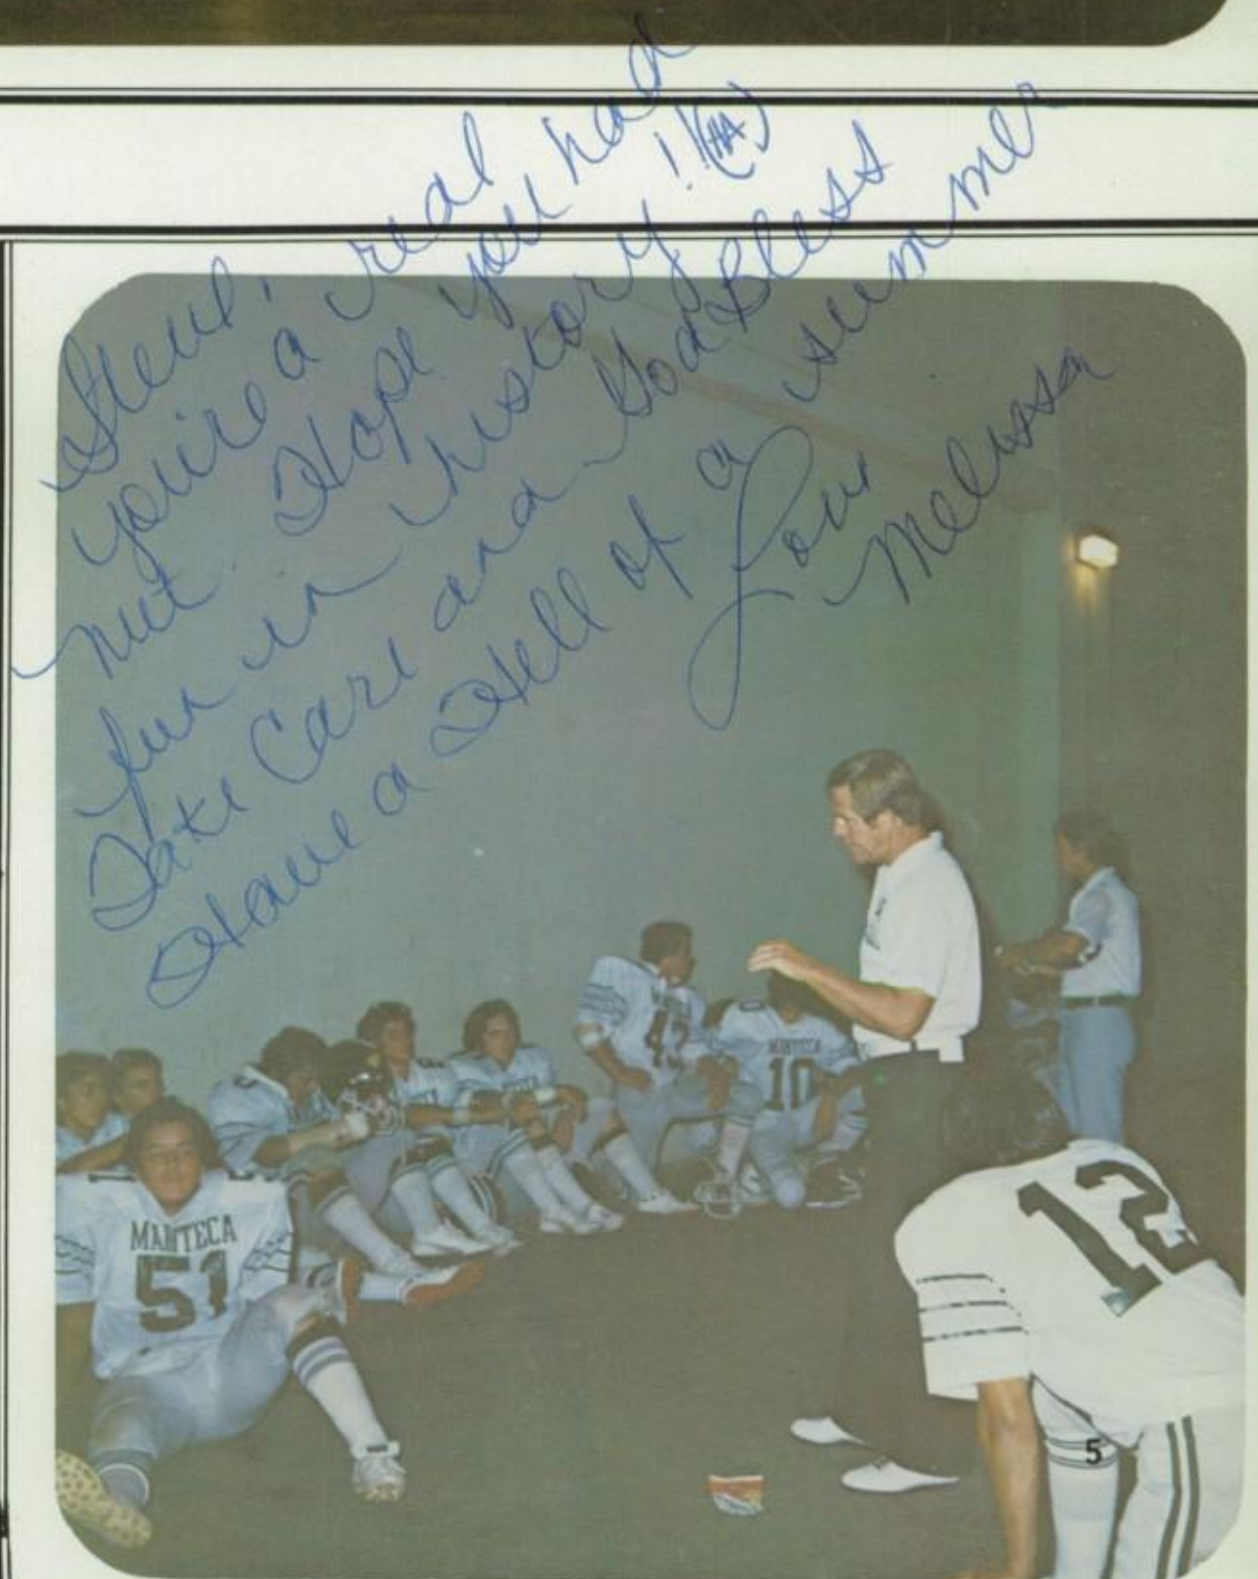

Many happenings in life today are nothing but an adventure. A classroom is an adventure, the adventure to study, and to learn. The adventure to succeed without failure. To come out of an adventurous time is no waste of time. You'll always have a special feeling of coming out on top. It's the feeling of victory. If you've got the feeling of victory, you've been through an adventure.

(1) Peter Herzog tries to open up a gap for Scotty Morris on a kick-off return against Tracy. (2) Students crowd around our famous Dawson Center during lunch break. (3) Foreign Exchange Students Rose-Marie Ellings and David Santamaria discover the wild life of Manteca High School. (4) Frank Triglia doesn't know what to believe anymore. (5) Rally Commissioner Cindy Rundell shows off her happy Monday morning blues.

(1) A freshman takes his first walk through the halls of Manteca High. (2) Lyn Rundell is all smiles on the first day of school. (3) The single car in the parking lot expresses a solemn feeling that settles over the school at the end of the day. (4) Joan Fells stares in shock at the sight of the main hall at lunch. (5) Coach Vick gives a last minute pep talk to the Varsity team. (6) Dori Overstreet participates in green and white day of spirit week. (7) The score board displays the near victory against St. Mary's.

Peoples Choice

The winners are Dayna Novacek for queen and Broni Steves for princess.

Each organization nominated a Homecoming Queen candidate. The Sophomore class nominated the Princess candidates.

The Sophomore and Varsity football teams voted and narrowed the candidates down to three princesses and five queen candidates. The student body, then voted for their choice.

The Queen and Princess were crowned at the victory Homecoming game against Sonora.

(1)Lisa Barefield waits for the crowning to start. (2) Theresa Brite smiles as she waits for the ceremony to begin. (3)Broni Steves, after she was crowned Homecoming Princess. (4) Homecoming Queen Dayna Novacek and Princess Broni Steves in their Corvette after the crowning. Homecoming Queen Candidates were Danette Aiello, Merisa Crowder, Karen Perez, Brenda Wolfe and Dayna Novacek.

Thank God it's Friday

Highlighting the evening's excitement was the Homecoming dance sponsored by the junior class. Approximately 500 people attended this dance and the class of '80 made a huge profit. Keeping in the tradition of Homecoming, in which alumni were welcomed back to their school, the juniors invited all alumni to attend this dance without a guest pass. Everyone got down to the beat of Crystal Image from 9:00 to 12:00. Chairman of the dance was Kelly Breshears. Dayna Novacek and Broni Steves our Homecoming Queen and Princess reigned over the dance. Overall it was a great success for the junior class.

(1) Freshmen were not excluded from this year's Homecoming Dance. They showed MHS spirit. (3)The Alumni rock on with Chrystal Image. (5) Dancers rock out on the music at the Homecoming dance.

Don't eat the Flowers

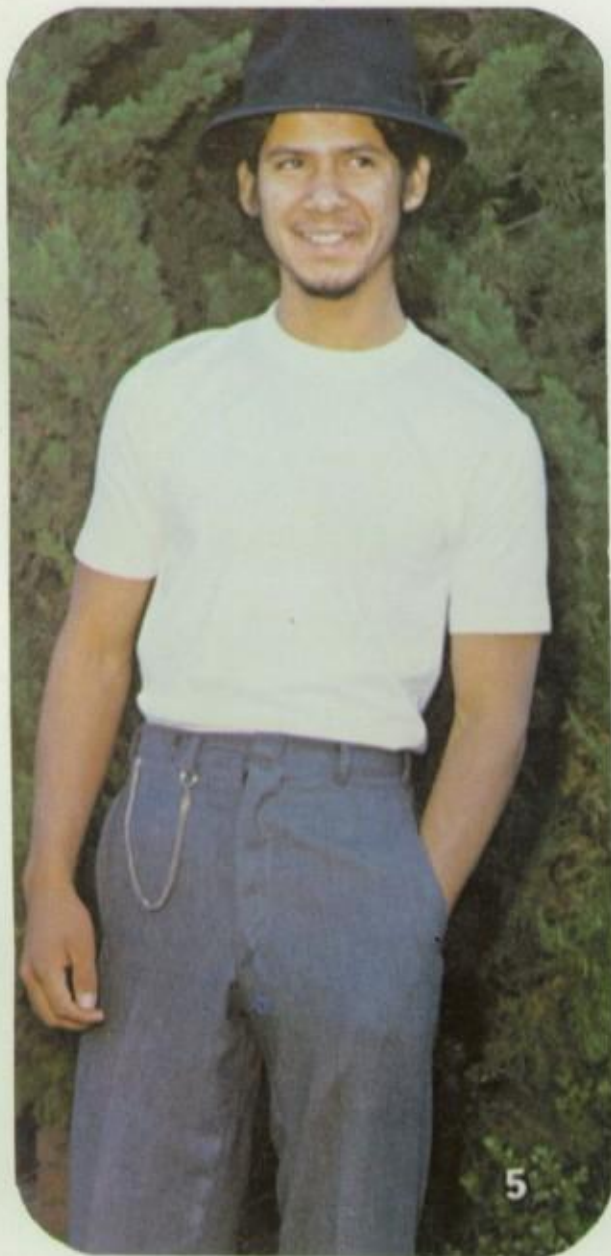

Part of Manteca High's Homecoming tradition was the building of floats. Every class and a few clubs entered floats in our traditional parade. The winner of the class floats was the sophomores. EHAC won for the club floats.

The theme this year for Homecoming week was "Buffs go through Time." Floats were made accordingly. Classes and clubs put a lot of time and hard work into these floats. Making them was also a lot of fun, for those students who participated. A feeling of accomplishment was felt by everyone who was involved.

(2) The winning float parades around the football field between the sophomore and varsity games. (4) Bob Hills enjoys himself while others work on the senior float. (6) Patty Neswick and Joan Sevor enjoy their work on the senior float. (7) Two of the freshmen prepare to work on their float.

(1) Robbie Steves, Glenda Gonzales, Robert Sheen, Jenny Lewis and Keith Jackson show how a Wild, Wild, West Day can be done. (2) Teresa Brite tells a Tower photographer what happened on her trip to Pluto on Space Day. (3) Another Space Day participant was Donna Fertig. (4) Debie Bishop feeds Jeff Tilton some dessert at the exciting Night Rally. (5) Ricardo Nunez shows off his 50's / 60's Day threads. (6) Wild, Wild, West Day saloon girls expose their garters to a few guys in the main hall. (7) The juniors from the Class of '80 demonstrate their spirit at our very exciting Night Rally.

Time Tunnel

If you saw strange people in goofy outfits walking in the halls, you were likely to stroll into the wild place of Manteca High during Homecoming Week. On Monday, it was Caveman Day. Students dressed in their favorite tiger-skin clad outfits. Tuesday was Wild, Wild, West Day. Wednesday 50's and 60's Day. Thursday was Space Odyssey Day, and Friday was traditional Green and White Day. Each day there was a tabulation among classes on which class dressed up the most. The seniors took Monday, Wednesday and Thursday while the sophomore's took Tuesday's Wild, Wild, West Day.

Cheerleaders

Bringing excitement and spirit throughout the year were sophomore cheerleaders, DeAnn Neeley, Head, Lisa Barefield, Susan Ireland, Denise Martin and Sue Roux.

Freshmen were led by Janice Morenzone, Sayona Gotschall, Gina Roberts and Sandy Saenz. The girls devoted many long hours of practice to create their own unique style of cheering at games and rallies.

Sophomore cheerleaders attended cheerleading camp at Stevenson College in Santa Cruz, where they learned many of the cheers that they performed.

Inspirers

Bringing smiles and spirit to MHS rallies and games were the energetic cheerleaders and songleaders. During the summer they practiced for many long and vigorous hours. After attending camp, winning awards and learning new routines they were ready to show their spirit to the student body.

Inspiring the varsity teams were the cheerleaders Danette Aiello, head, Karen Perez, Glenda Gonzales, Linda Morenzone, Kelly Breshears, and Jenny Lewis. Adding attraction were the songleaders, Dayna Novacek, head, Susan Walker, Merisa Crowder, Donna Simpson, Susie Dunaway and Gina Pinto.

(1) Head songleader, Dayna Novacek yells a cheer of encouragement to the football players. (2) Varsity cheerleaders, Jenny Lewis, Danette Aiello, Karen Perez, Glenda Gonzales, Kelly Breshears, and Linda Morenzzone take time out from their strenuous practice to pose for Yearbook photographer, David Davis. (3) Songleaders and cheerleaders move to the beat at the St. Mary's game. (4) Cheering with much enthusiasm at the Oakdale game is Karen Perez, Jenny Lewis and Linda Morenzzone. (5) Susan Walker, Donna Simpson, Dayna Novacek, Gina Pinto, Susie Dunaway and Merisa Crowder, Varsity songleaders, show their spirit. (6) Igniting spirit, as the Buffs make a touchdown are spirit leaders Gina Pinto, Merisa Crowder, Susan Walker, Kelly Breshears, and Susie Dunaway. (7) Showing much of her spirit is head varsity cheerleader, Danette Aiello.

Award Winners

Buffalo Gals and Mascots proved their spirit by performing at rallies and football and basketball half-time shows. The Buffalo Gals also marched in parades.

During the summer the Buffalo Gals attended Santa Cruz Drill Team Camp and won numerous awards. The mascots attended Santa Cruz USA Camp and won a 1st place trophy for being super mascots. They also won two spirit sticks, three superior ribbons and two excellent ribbons.

Leading the Buffalo Gals were Captain Joan Fells and co-captains Brenda Wolfe and Tammy Marples. Their advisor was Miss Helphingstine.

The very popular and spirited mascots were Cathy Littlejohn and Debbie Franscella.

As The Drum Rolls on

Our majorettes and banner girls added a sparkle to the pre-game and half-time entertainment during the football games. They also represented our school in numerous parades.

During the summer they attended camp and spent many hours learning how to work together. They also got many new ideas for the year.

Head majorette was Cindy Doty. She showed the other majorettes many new routines and spent many hours developing and rehearsing their routines.

Flag girls also attended camp. They returned with snappy new routines.

Corvette Summer

The summer of '78 was filled with spectacular events for many students. For others it was just one hot day after another. Some students underwent changes and experienced new activities.

Yearbook editors, Margaret Meays and Julia Harp flew to Hawaii for the Aloha Yearbook Conference. Ricardo Nunez spent his summer photographing the breathtaking scenery at Yosemite National Park. Student Council Members spent the summer attending leadership conference camps. Some students dreaded the start of school.

The Yearbook staff hopes that the majority of Manteca High School students had a "wild and crazy" summer.

Up In Smoke

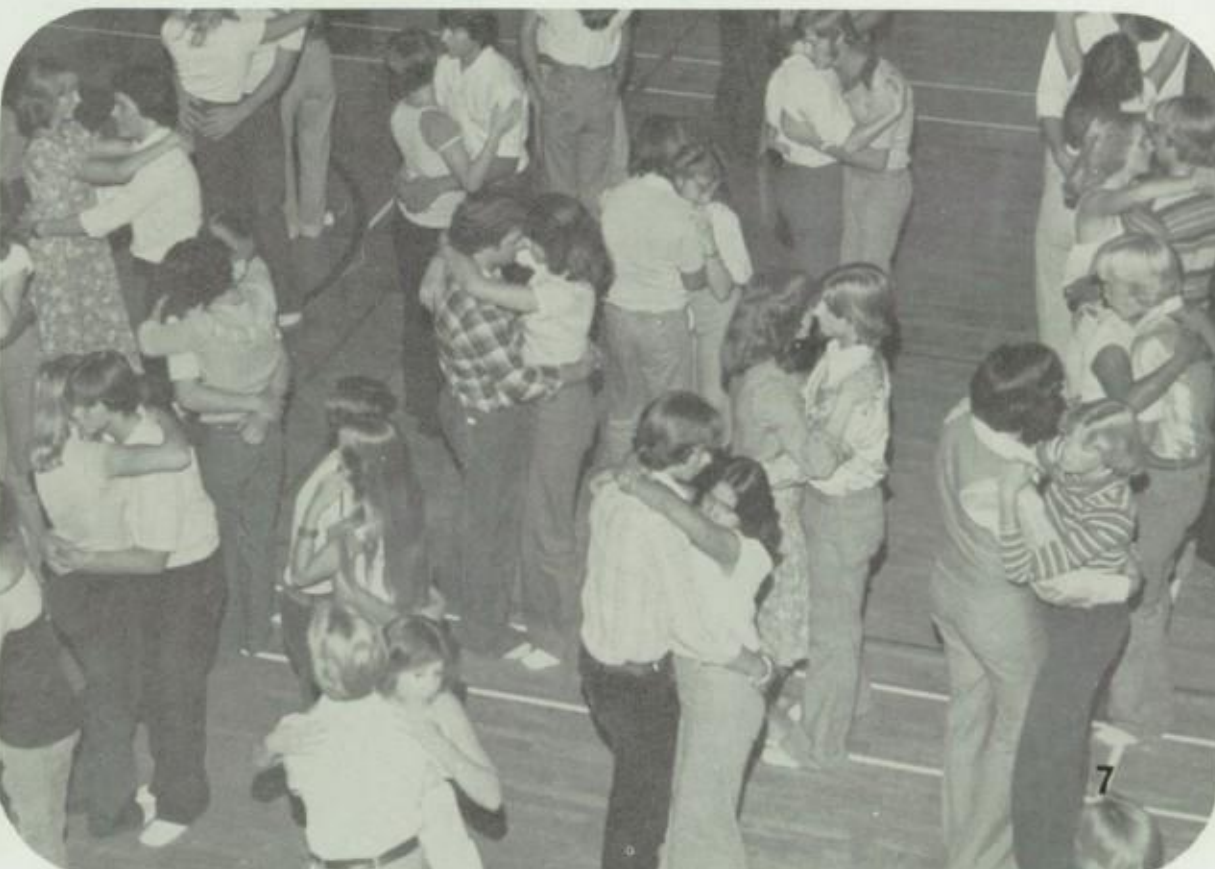

After four weeks of tough preparation, the Manteca Buffaloes took on the Tracy Bulldogs on September 8. Many came out to see an exciting football game, only to have Tracy's fans go home pysched and Mantecans wondering what happened.

Tracy, behind a 'super' half-back John Morehouse, ran over Manteca's defense to salvage a 41-0 victory. Manteca came ready to play the number one team in the valley and possibly the state, only to come up short everytime the Buffs touched the ball.

Manteca's Louis Small seemed to be the Buffs' only bright spot, as he earned the Manteca News' Buffalo of the week. After the victory for Tracy, there was no joy in Manteca.

(1) Senior fullback Louis Small looks for an opening through a 'devastating' Tracy defense.
 (2) Scott Morris breaks away on the opening kick-off.
 (6) The Manteca Buffaloes sprint across the field, ready to take on the Tracy Bulldogs.

Let's Go To The Hop

The first dance of the year was the Hello Hop. It followed the Tracy game, the first football game of the season. Although the Buffs lost the game, the dance drew a large crowd.

Student Council was in charge of the dance. Students said it was put on well. It was a disco dance with flashing bright lights. The music was supplied by Lauri Cornell and Walt Scheinuck who played hits from the top 40 while everyone got the disco fever.

The Freshmen were given buttons to wear to show that they were Freshmen. Freshmen chosen at random as King and Queen were Marty Steves and Linda Palesch.

(3) Linda Palesch and Marty Steves stand royally after being officially crowned King and Queen of the Hello Hop. (4) Manuel Nordel invents his own dancing steps. (5) Tim Fells and his partner boogie to the music. (7) Couples dance to the song "Last Dance" at the Hello Hop.

Night Fever

Friday and Saturday nights were usually when most of the fun took place. On Friday nights, during football and basketball season, the night people would support their local team and then rock and roll at the occasional after game dances.

Of course these nights would not have been complete if there wasn't a party going on. Saturday nights brought the people out to help celebrate anything they would come up with out at Bluto's, Dust Bowl and even Navajo.

For those people who just happen to have come down with a case of the "munchies" Straw Hat, McDonalds and Brawleys were the favorite spots to eat.

Let us not forget the traditional teepeeing and egging stunts when lots of people took the risk.

(1) Happy munchers are Keith Jackson and Larry Diggs. (2) Typical Friday night crowd watch as the Buffs destroy their opponents. (3) The intellectual take in a chit-chat with senator John McFall. (4) Kerri Rice shows her spirit at the night rally after a very good night life. (5) Charlie Tuna's a favorite spot to stop and check the action. (6) Boogie down to the top 10 as a way to get phyched. (7) A familiar sight at Bluto's.

Nasty Habits

Fads were an important part of school this year, and the students at Manteca High came up with some great ideas. One of the most popular fads was watching Saturday Night Live with that "wild and crazy guy" Steve Martin and the Cone Heads with their comical routines.

Skiing was an all day affair for MHS students. It started out with the usual meeting place, McDonalds. Then came the ride to Dodge, Bear Valley or Kirkwood where everyone had a fine time.

Manteca High Students listened to the radio throughout the school year and some of the most listened to songs were Beast of Burden, You Don't Bring Me Flowers, You've Been Talking In Your Sleep, How Much I Feel, McArthur Park, Sharing The Night Together and many more.

(1) A popular sight for Manteca High Ski Buffs is ski equipment. (2) A great way to spend a free night is dancing at a disco. (3) Miss You, Beasts of Burden and Some Girls were three smash singles from the album Some Girls by the Rolling Stones. (4) Popular movies of the school year. (5) A great album this year was by that wild and crazy guy, Steve Martin. (6) Saying from the 1978-79 school year. (7) The unique and famous coneheads from Saturday Night Live.

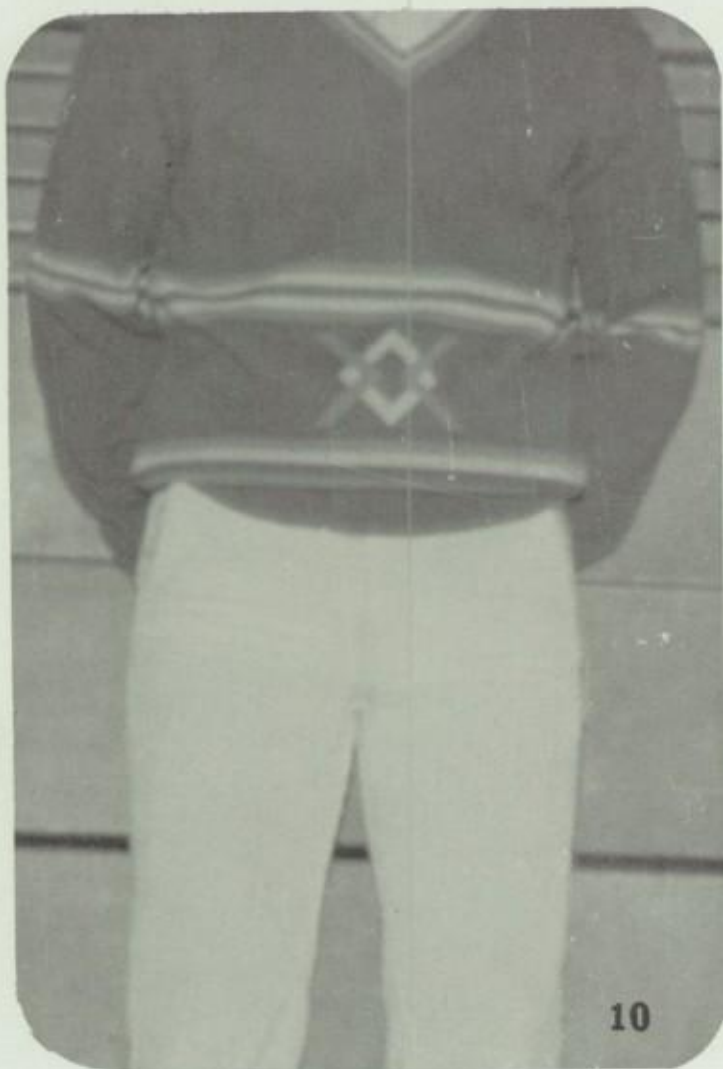

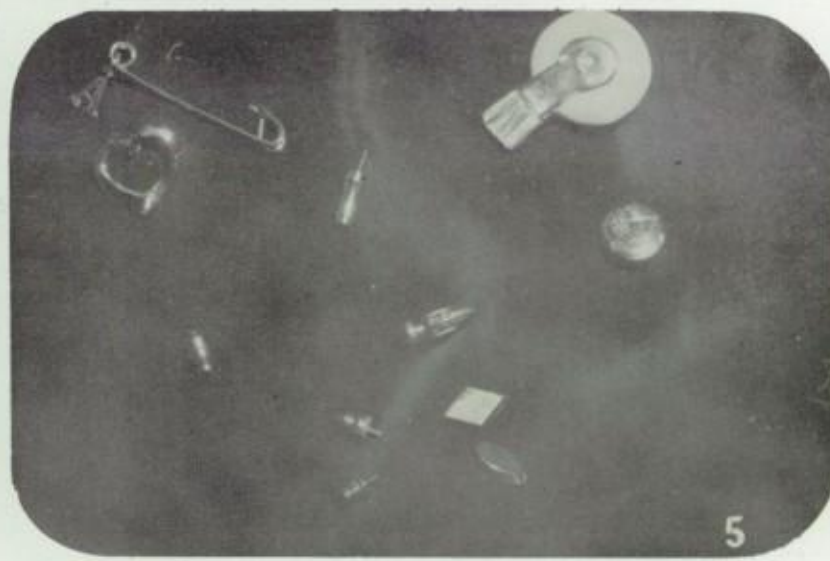

Mahogany

This year's fashions changed somewhat and Manteca High students were up there in style. If you went through the hall you would see girls and boys alike in straight-legged jeans. Many girls wore stylish vests, blousey tops belted off at the waist, pleated pants, assorted styles of clogs and colorful scarves around their necks to accent their outfits, along with velour tops that felt good to wear and "touch." Of course, "boots, pullover sweaters and wool skirts were still in and will be for a few years."

(1) Belted off blousey tops were one of the familiar fashions at MHS. (2) Pleated pants were seen frequently at school. (3) Many classy clogs cluttered the halls. (4) Adding a touch of class are the velour tops. (5) Assorted styles and shapes of pins added personality to one's clothing. (6) A variety of flashy vests were commonly seen. (7) Curls are back, and everybody's got them. (8) Flannel shirts are a popular fashion for many guys. (9) Laurie Toy and Diana Gikas model their spiffy outfits. (10) Pullover sweaters provide casual clothing. (11) Scarves accented many outfits. (12) Wool skirts added flair to today's styles.

Chips Of The Buffalo

Dear Mr. Chips:

I decided to finally sit down and write you this letter on our past school year. The year really started out slowly with the Varsity Football Team on which I played. The team began the season with no wins and four losses. Boy, those were the slowest weeks of my life. It seemed spirit was dropping at our Alma Mater, but our traditional night rally saved us. The Class of 79, after many years of silence, came to life that was almost unstoppable. Soon we put things together and took the VOL Championship.

At our school we have a thing called 'Ski Fever'. In other words, we'd cut school to go skiing and come back the next day and say we were sick, get it?! Oh yeah, almost forgot to tell you about our big fight we had at school. It knocked over 25% of the students out of class. It was called the Russian Flu. Boy, she was one tough cookie, or bug, or whatever

Our Rowdy Rooters came back together during Basketball. Boy, I'll never forget those dirty yells that drove parents and our school officials up the wall.

Spring rolled around, as many of us stripped down to swim suits and bikinis (for the girls) to get a quick tan on weekends, and then came back to school and showed our 'Golden California' faces to other students. Wow, what a way to show off

Well, don't know much more to say, so I'll see ya later, someday.

Sincerely,

Jeff Tilton

Our new pope, Pope John Paul II's promise to the church and to the world is, "You may call on me as you would your father."

Proposition 13 created a huge roar of disapproval when it went into effect early this summer. Because of Proposition 13, homeowners won't have to pay as many tax dollars as they had been paying.

Finally, after trying for ten years to succeed in the world of comedy, Steve Martin finally made it! He is considered that "wild and crazy guy!"

Elvis, who may be gone, will never be a memory—he's still a full presence. Elvis has been dead for over a year, yet his memory is still treasured by young and old.

The horror story of the year was the Jamestown Mass Suicide. The perpetrator of this mass suicide was Jim Jones, who was a preacher at a church in San Francisco. He told hundreds of people that he was God and that he would lead them to the "promised land." He told them that in order to save their souls they had to commit suicide. In the end he caused the mass suicide by having the people drink Toxic Kool-Aid. Those who didn't drink this were murdered. 900 people died.

Angel Jaclyn Smith married actor, Dennis Cole after seeing him for over a year. The happy couple was married November, 1978. Her husband, Dennis pledged that, "Marriage is very serious and we plan it to last forever!"

Angel Kate Jackson was also married this year. She married actor, Andrew Stevens. They were married August 23, 1978.

A new breakthrough in medical history was made this year. The first test tube baby was born. Her name is Louise Brown.

Actress and singer Donna Summer, was made a star after her fantastic performance in "Thank God It's Friday." Donna Summer is considered to be the Queen of the Disco.

The highest paid model in the United States was Cheryl Tiegs. This year, though, she turned 31, and decided to go into acting. She also wrote a book called, "How to be a Natural Beauty."

The Foreign Exchange

The new exchange students brought along with them a vibrant foreign spirit. Coming from Colombia was David Santa Marie and from Sweden, Hans Nyberg, Sten Ernerot, and Rose Marie Elling.

When asked about his main interest, first on Hans' list was girls. When not involved in that activity he played with his polar bear, Pouchy. A regular at Comcenex, Sten said he enjoyed parties. He felt that Americans were open and easy to talk to. David was more on the scholastic side. His future plans were to attend college for three years in Colombia and he hoped to travel to Spain and manage a hotel. Not too surprising was the fact that Rose Marie forgot to mention boys. She tended to be busy with other aspects of American life. She was on the Cross Country team, and also liked other sports.

(1) Rose Marie takes it to the limit at the VOL Championships. (2) David looks on attentively at a student government meeting. (3) Hans and Sten appear skeptical at suggestions made in student government. (4) David and Rose Marie take a scenic stroll. (5) Sten reaches into his bag of tricks for a few laughs. (6) Rose Marie and buddies kick back after the cross country meet. (7) Foreign Exchange Students: Hans Nyberg, Sten Ernerot, Rose Marie Elling and David Santa Maria.

One Christmas

Twass the time for Christmas and all through the halls students were dancing and having a ball.

Mistletoe was sold, candy canes a treat, and everyone knew Christmas would be neat.

All students were bored asleep in their class, while visions of vacation went by fast.

The Christmas Rally about to begin and everyone anxiously wanted in.

Climbed down from the ladder and on to the floor was the Grinch that stole Christmas, but not anymore.

School was over, vacation began, the night life started, and the parties were grand.

Christmas was here finally at last, presents were opened, and all had a blast.

The turkey was carved, the eggnog was poured by the time Christmas was through everyone was bored.

Christmas is over, until next year, so in the mean time HAVE A HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

(1) Freshmen are astonished at their first Christmas rally. (2) Lori Gikas and Tracy Candini enjoy the 'good' food at a party. (3) Santa Claus himself visited MHS's Christmas rally. (4) The Grinch, Mr. Fix, steals the Christmas tree away from sleeping students. (5) Yearbook staff scarves out at their party.

Silent Night

The second annual Manteca-East Union Christmas Semi-Formal was a huge success. 280 couples danced to the music of Struttin'. The dance was held at the MRPS hall and sponsored by Manteca's and East Union's Student Councils. Chairpersons were Manteca's Lyn Rundell and East Union's Don Thornburg and Kendra Summers.

Foreign exchange students from both schools put on the Santa Lucia to entertain the dance goers. The theme of the Christmas Semi-Formal was Mistletoe Magic.

Get Down And Boogie

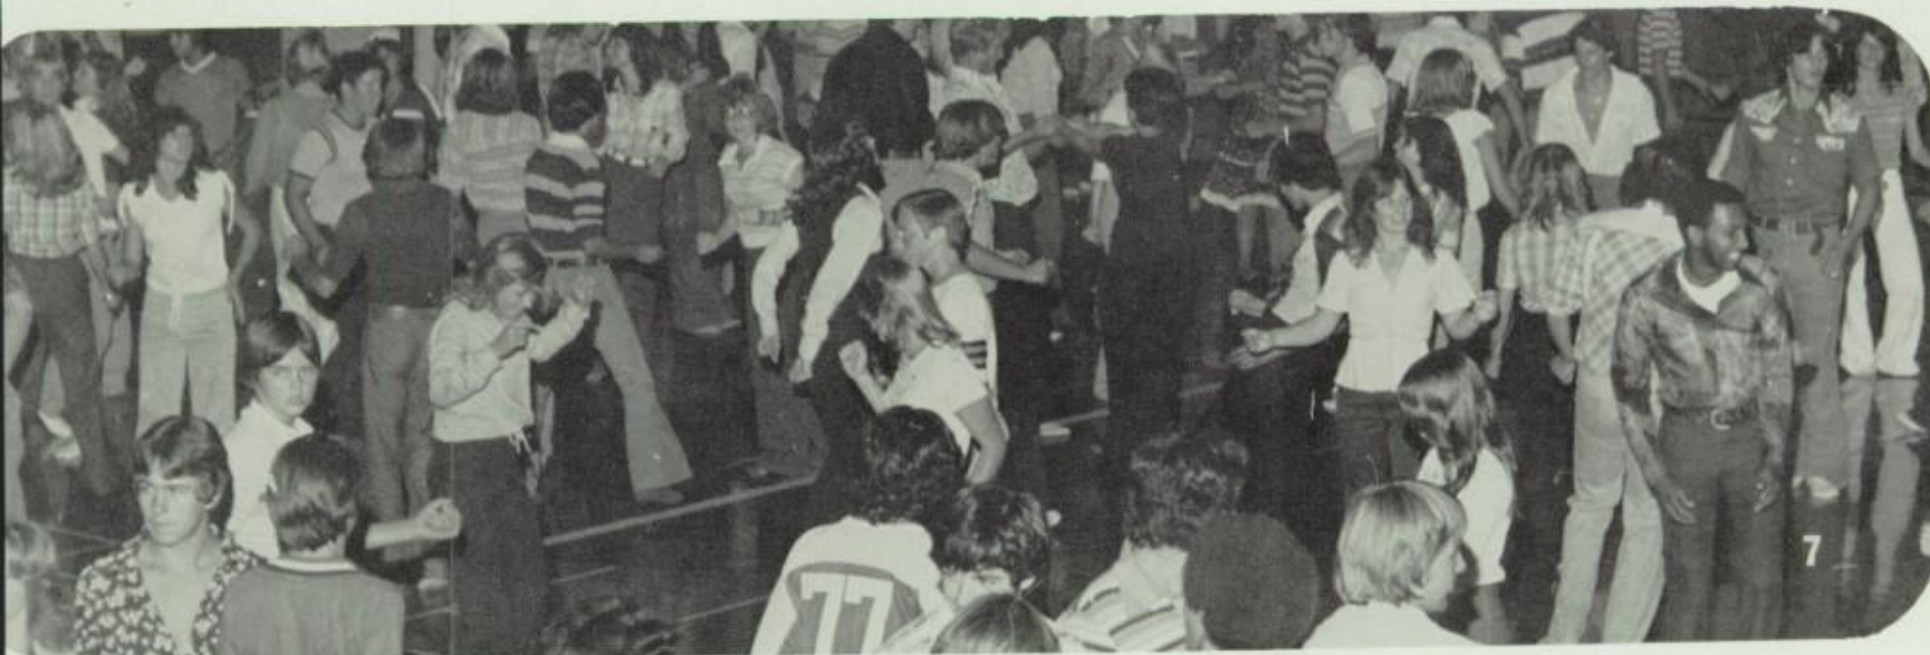

Disco seemed to be the new craze and Manteca High students were in on it. Many dances were Mc'd by DJ's who played tunes from the top 40. At other dances bands performed and captured an exciting atmosphere.

The dances were held after football and basketball games. Everyone found their certain someone and danced the night away.

Various clubs sponsored the dances and used the profits for yearly trips and extra money for their treasury.

(2) Fred Nelson, Judy Napier and George Worthington dance to the music of "Daybreak". (3) Mark DeLong and Becky Reeves show their latest disco dance steps. (4) Jeff Larson snaps his fingers to the beat of the music. (7) Students rock on at the last dance of the football season.

That's Entertainment

One of the high points of high school life once again proved to be the rallies. Much time and hard work was spent in the planning of these by Commissioner of Rallies, Cindy Rundell and her rally committee. The students were entertained by skits and the spirit squads were always there to liven things up.

Who could forget the fantastic night rally. Talk about 'rowdy' or when Robert Leal couldn't get his pants off while inside a sleeping bag. Amused was everyone when Jeff Tilton got a pie in the face. Class yells always climaxed the rallies to get everyone fired up for the games. The rallies served their purpose by increasing spirit among the students.

(1) Arabella Mola, the Mascot and, the wildcat get the spirit going at the night rally. (2) The superior senior spirit is shown by Dani Sutti, Dana Johns and Rosie Espinola. (3) Baby, Debbie Franscella has one of her temper tantrums at the Central Catholic rally. (4) Antoinette Machado passes the onion in class competition during the big EU rally. (5) Rally Commissioner Cindy Rundell waits for the crowd to quiet down before beginning the rally. (6) Looks like the toga rally got a little too rowdy for Jeff Tilton. (7) Styles of the 50's seem to be catching on as shown by Jeff Neeley and Debie Bishop.

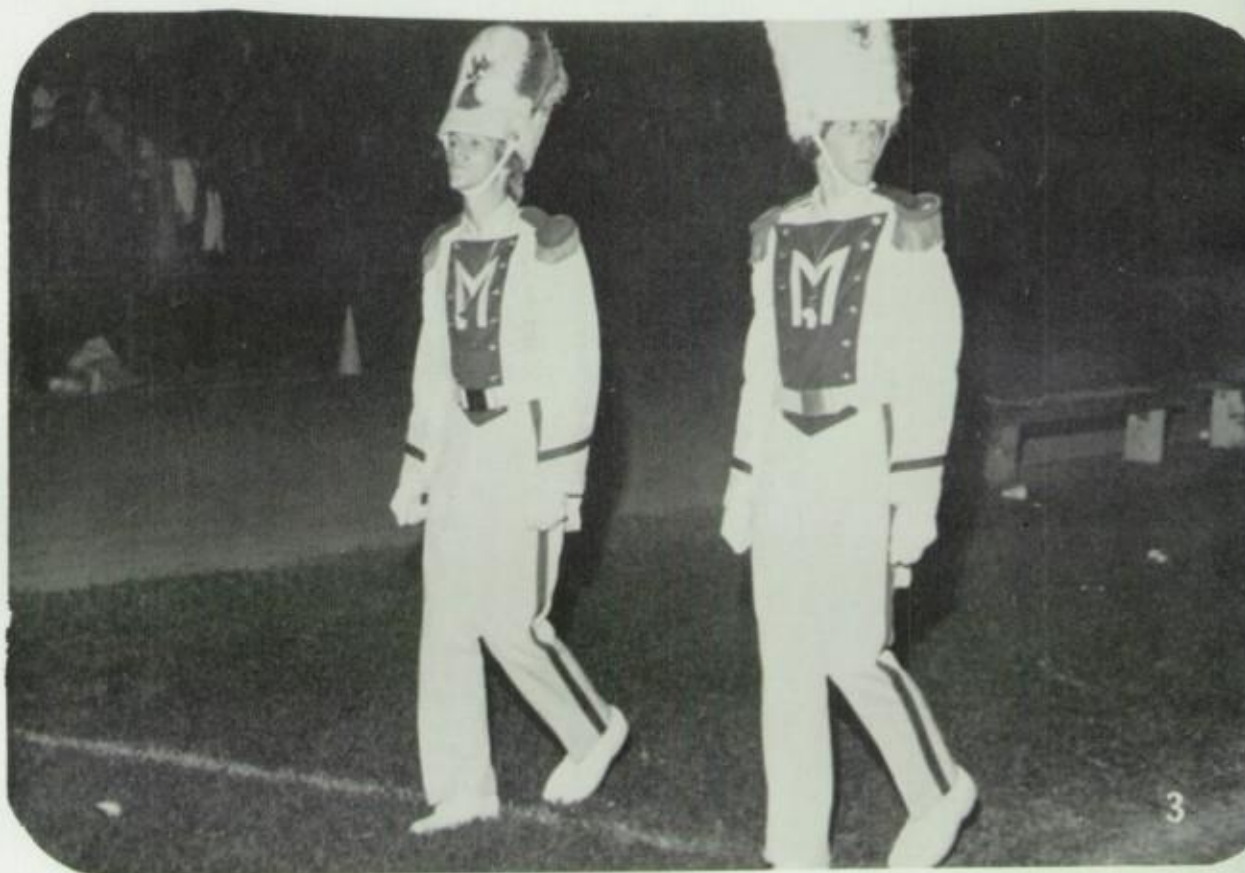

Music Man

Do you remember the halftime entertainment at the football games or doing your work to a drum beat sixth period? It was the marching band who made those harmonious sounds. Those 105 band members, eight majorettes, 14 flag girls, and nine banner girls worked long and hard to make their performance good.

The music man himself, Greg Souza, drum major Randy Pinnelli, and assistant major Don Jacobsen led their band in parades. A few of the parades were: The Modesto Band Review, Lodi-Tokay Band Review, UOP Band Day, Long Beach All Western Band Review, Manteca Christmas parade. But the big honor was when they were selected to play for President Carter during his visit to Sacramento.

As if all of those parades weren't enough they had two concerts and moneymaking projects. With the money they raised they bought new band uniforms.

(1) The marching band show their talent during halftime at the Central Catholic game. (3) Drum major Randy Pinnelli marches on, as assistant Drum major, Don Jacobsen, gives in to his curiosity and looks to see who made the touchdown. (4) Concentration is the key in keeping the beat as these drummers display.

Come Blow Your Horn

The Pep Band, under the direction of Greg Souza, played at away football games, all basketball games, and all of the pre-game rallies. They played songs like: Disco Inferno, Sgt. Peppers, Star Wars, How Deep is Your Love, the Alma Mater, and On Manteca.

All the pep band members received an award for their participation and dedication to the band.

St. Louis Blues

Practice every day first period was just a part of what the Jazz Band did. Under the direction of Mr. Greg Souza, they performed at the Columbia Jazz Festival, Reno Jazz Festival, and Manteca's Pumpkin Festival. They also had concerts in the spring.

The Jazz Band consisted of saxophones, guitars, clarinets, drums, and trumpets.

The band held candy sales and car washes to raise money to cover their expenses.

(1) Dave Coldren practices at the piano. (3) The brass section rocks out to the music they make.

The Cheap Detective

To put on the play "Any Number Can Die" the cast members spent many long hours in practice and setting up the scenes to achieve the proper atmosphere. This play gave the audience a feeling of involvement because it was a who-done-it play. This time it wasn't the butler it was the lawyer who-done-it.

The cast members were: Cindy Jones, Jo Ann Donati, Julie Waldvogal, Robert Balentine, Shane Peterson, and others. The play was under the direction of Dorothy Mulvihill.

The Sting

Work Experience is an educational program utilizing community resources. It is a class off campus to teach job information, work habits, skills, and attitudes. Masih Shafqat, coordinator, said, "Each year it improves but this year has been the best."

It is illegal for anyone under 18 years of age to work more than four hours on any school day or work later than 10:00 p.m. preceeding any school day.

A student on the Work Experience Education Program may be allowed to 1) work more than four hours on a school day 2) work later than 10:00 p.m. preceeding a school day 3) leave school earlier to meet the demands of a job and 4) earn 40 units of school credit to meet the graduation requirements.

Semi Tough

With Jeff Neeley in charge of Manteca High's financial needs, he came up with the idea to have a Powder Puff Football Game. The girls were only to play East Union. Being better than anyone expected the game was a total success.

Manteca, under the direction of Chris Shaefer, led his buffs to an unpredictable 8-0 victory. Donna Simpson led all rushers with a total of 83 yards. Simpson also scored the Buff's only touchdown, a run of 29 yards.

The Buff defense was led by a powerful line. Tev Machado, Kerri Rice, Susan Snider and Debbie Franscella stymied East Union's defensive attack.

Frank Triglia, Robert Sheen and Robbie Steves filled in the Buffalo coaching staff.

(2) Freshman Gina Roberts (33) sweeps around left-end, as Donna Simpson (40) looks for a block to throw. (3) Powder Puff leading rusher Donna Simpson (40) sprints to the corner of the end-zone for a Manteca touchdown. (5) Ronda McGaha (11) quarterback, pitches out to fullback Renee Orlando (32) before being flagged down by an East Union player.

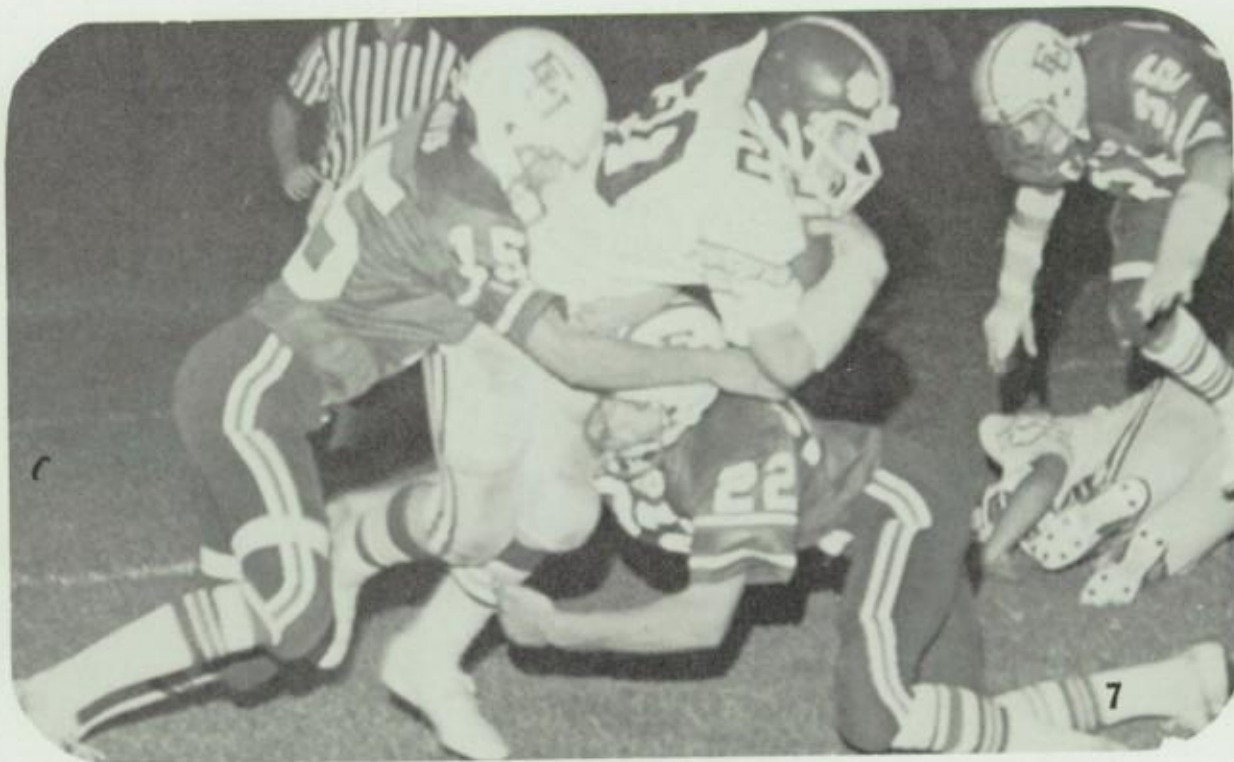

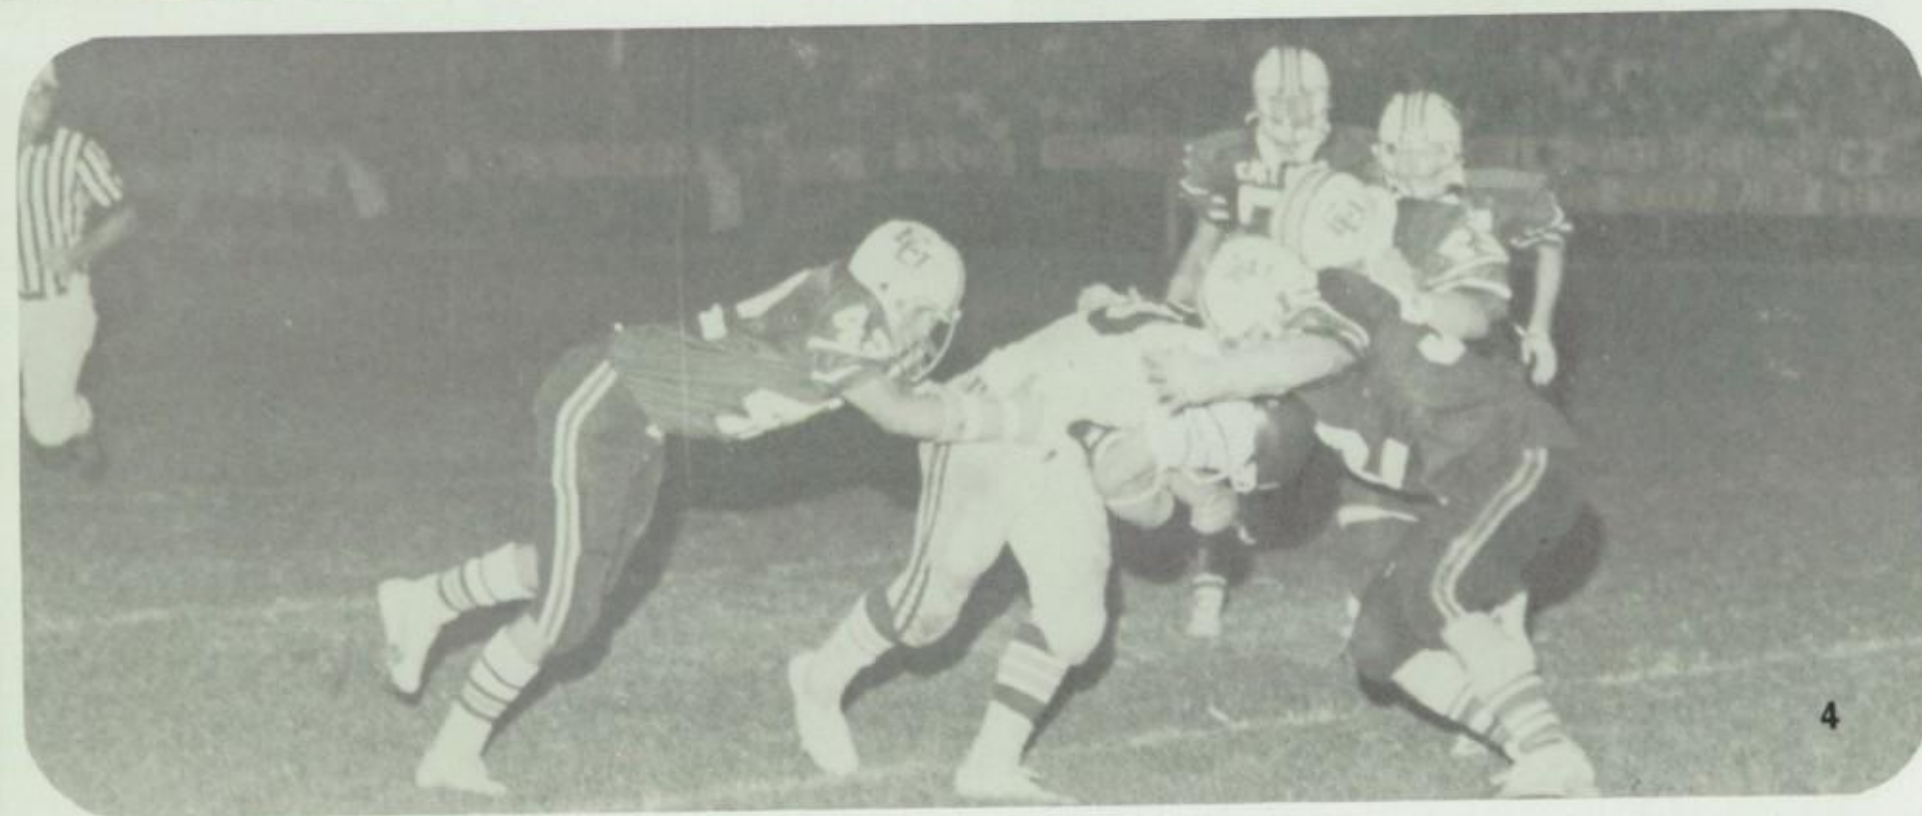

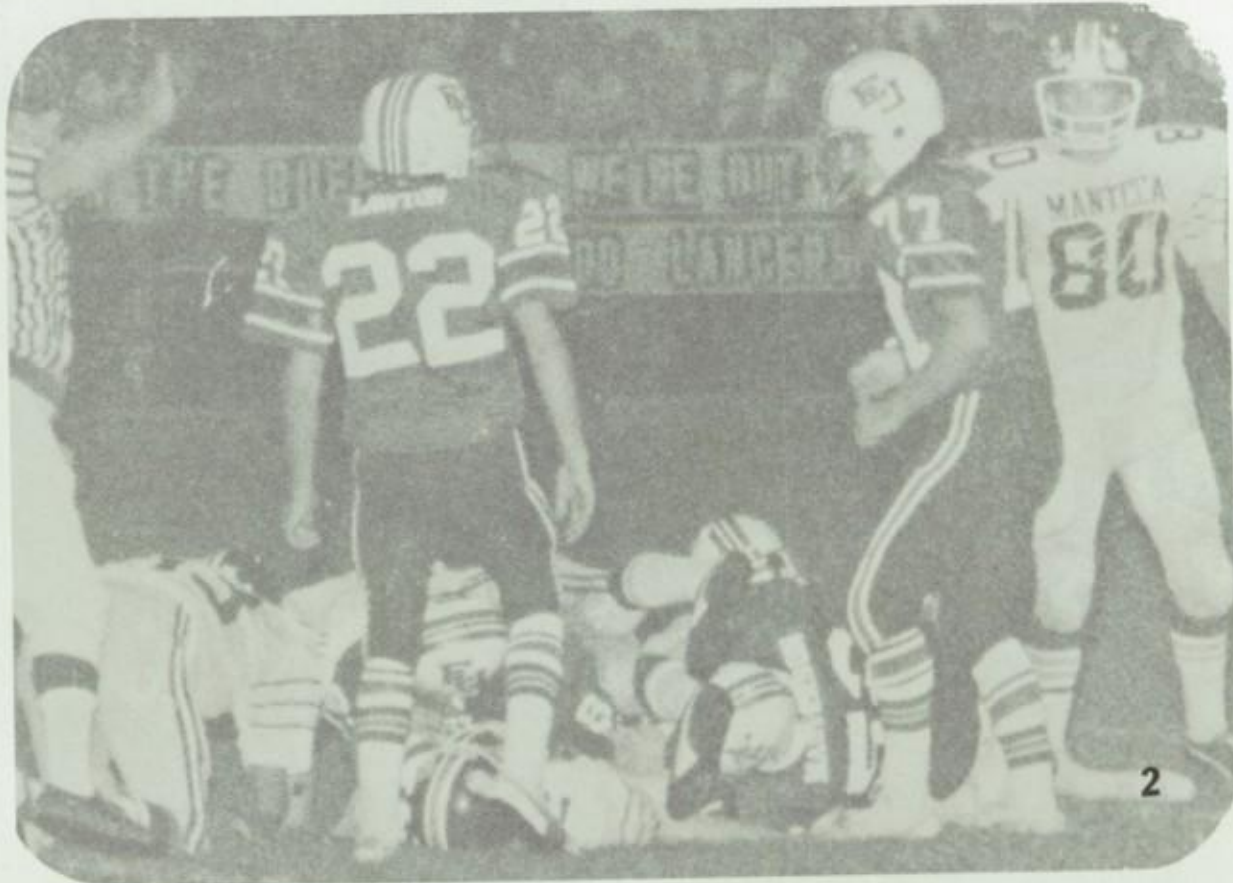

The Good, The Bad and the Ugly.

Electricity covered the stadium as both teams came out to battle for another city-championship game. From the opening kickoff to the final gun was excitement as both teams struggled down the field trying desperately to score.

Defense was the key to the Buffs' victory as they put continuous pressure on the East Union back field. Led by Jeff Tilton, Don Neuner and Art Limas the defense forced a safety to take the lead which they never gave up. The final gun sounded, ending the game in the Buffs favor and another city-championship.

(1) Scott Morris sprints around the corner on his way to a touchdown. (2) EU defense stops Manteca just short of a touchdown. (3) Don Neuner and Jeff Tilton sack Larry Grissom. It was a first for the girls' tennis team as the number one doubles team of Brenda Handy and Robin Wilson advanced to the Sac.-Joaquin sections at Tokay High School in Lodi. Handy and Wilson, along with Sonora's number one singles player Megan Sisk gained the honors after winning the top slots in a two day Valley Oak League competition.

The tennis team tied for second with Los Banos in a 7-3 season. All-leaguers were Lauri Toy, singles, with an 8-2 season; Handy and Wilson, and Broni Steves, honorable mention singles, with a 7-3 season.

Judy Sheen won the Novice Tournament, an annual tournament for girls who had not played a varsity match during the first round of competition.

Playing varsity were singles Toy, Steves, and Monica Pope. Varsity doubles included Handy and Wilson and Kim Davidson and Debbie Schettler.

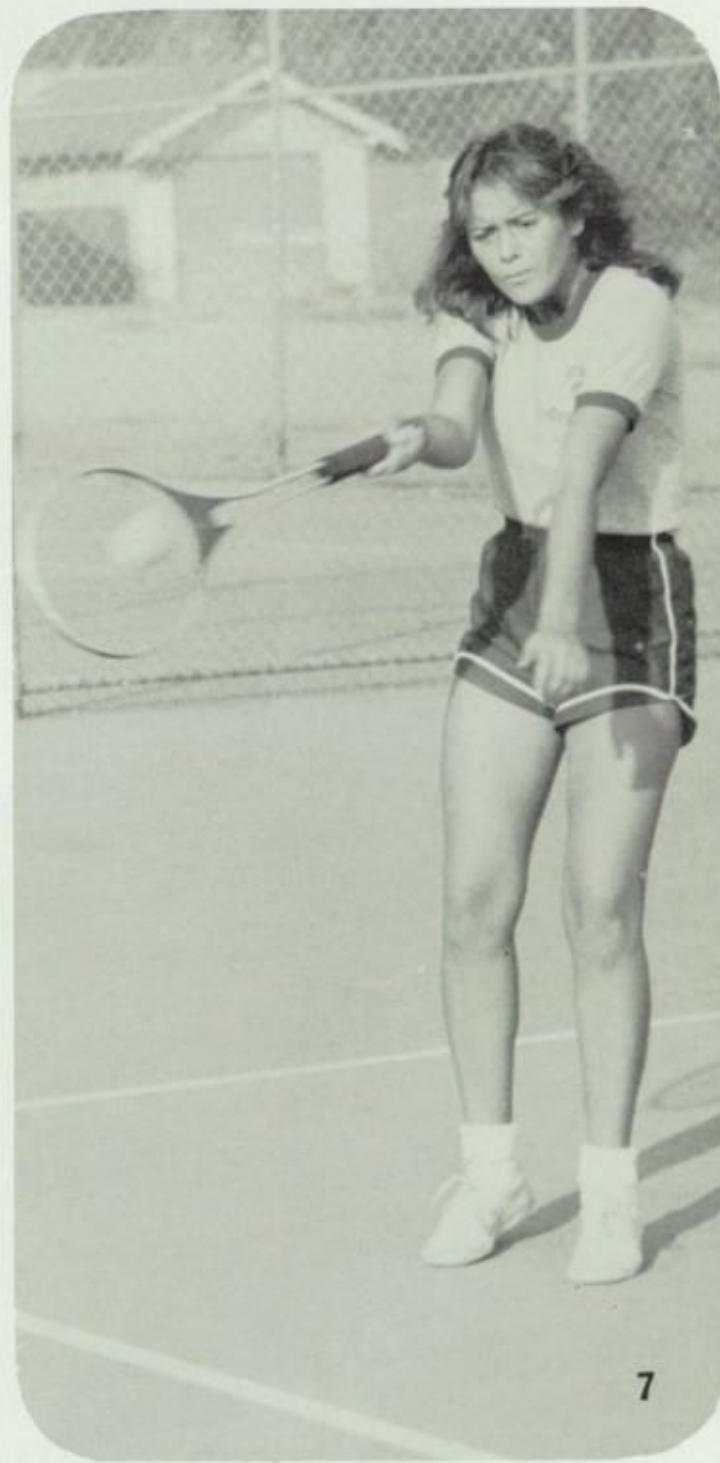

Coaching the team with a 'good' season was Sharyl Burgeson.

Runaway

Under the leadership of coach, Jim Frost, the Manteca High Girls' Cross Country team was under way.

Taking a one week trip to Yosemite Valley for some high altitude training was one of the toughest jobs ever. Denise Negley, sophomore, was the women's prime runner going undefeated in the VOL. Andrea Negley, senior, held the number two position. RoseMarie Ellings, Calisse Gregor, Teresa Brite, Cathy Neumann, Chris Milner and Francine Aydelott formed the remaining of the ladies team. All of these ladies revealed their fine talents at the Valley Oak League Championship and were well awarded with first place team trophies.

Marathon Man

Sergio Aguilar led the varsity team to become VOL Champions and the junior team to Sub Sections. Tailing Aguilar was number two runner Eddie Littlefield. The members of the cross country team practiced since June 19 and went to Yosemite for a week to get high altitude training. These marathon men practiced long and hard by running the streets of Manteca to condition themselves for the numerous meets they participated in.

Mr. Jim Frost's seven years of coaching experience proved to help these runners win.

The Set Up

"Varsity Volleyball had the best season this year." Their league record was 5-5 and overall record 7-10. They also placed third in league. Captains of the Varsity team were Karen Steves and Julie Cunial. Top players were Dani Sutti, Steves, Debbie Bylow, Donna Fertig, and Carol Robertson. Most valuable player was Steves.

The JV Volleyball team had a league record of 3-7 and overall their record was 5-11. Captains were Connie Cook and Jennifer Cotta. Top players were Michelle Foote, Laura McDonald, and Jennifer Cotta.

Heaven Can Wait

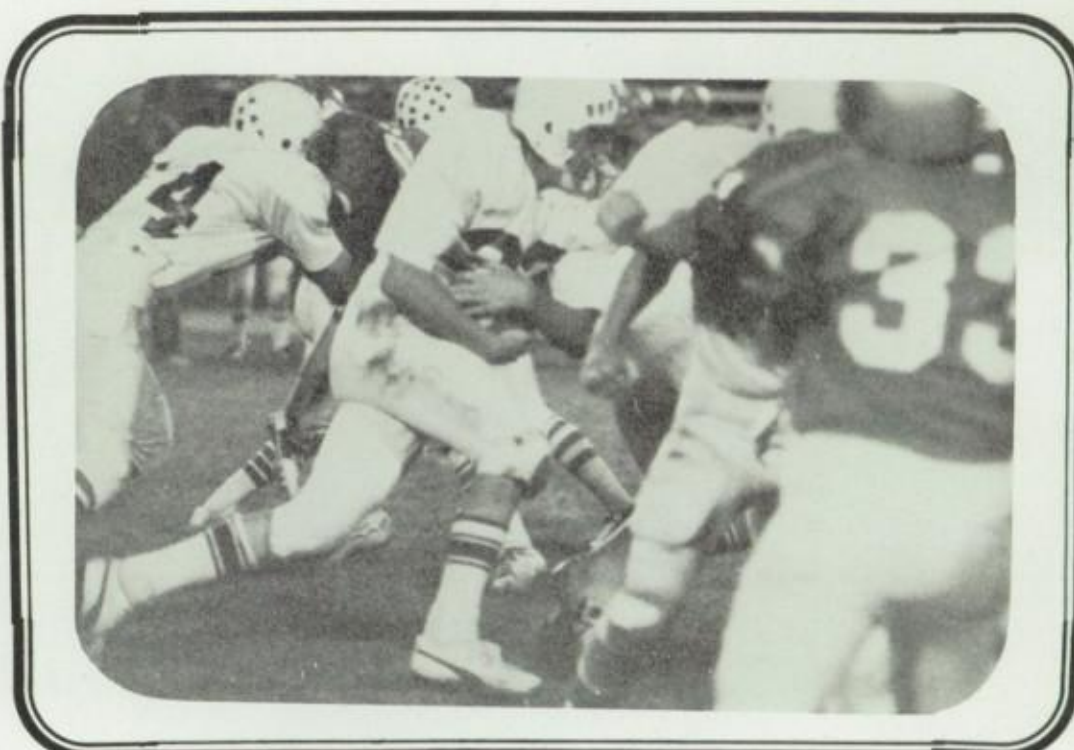

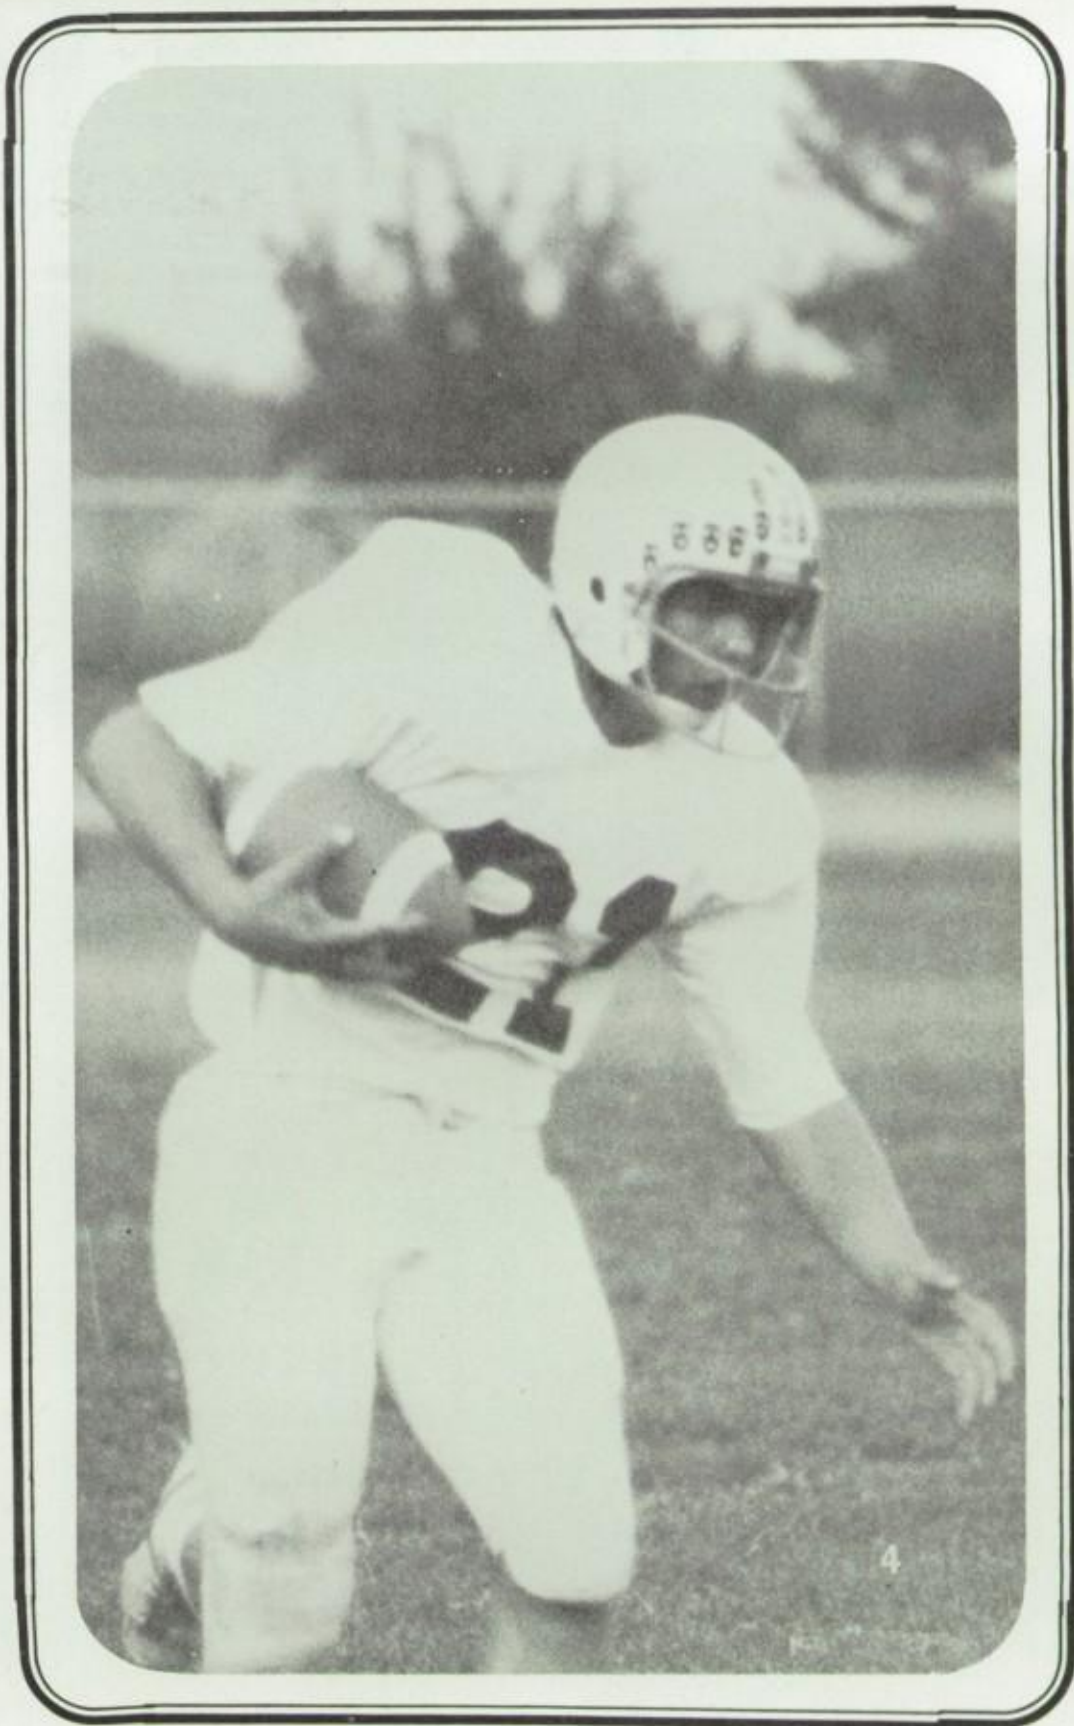

An Amazing season for the Baby Buffs ended with the freshmen team taking first place in the Valley Oak League.

The Baby Buffs came away this year with a 9-0 record. "The key factor was the unity among the players. The fact that the players operated as a team instead of individuals was the main factor in our success," coach Joe Jacobs commented.

Most valuable player was awarded to Pat Schimke with 600 yards rushing. Outstanding offensive player went to Gerald Capps. Outstanding defensive player went to Kevin Cabral.

(1) Ron Limas drops back to punt for the Baby Buffs. Brian's Song

Just short of a championship berth, the Little Buffs had an exceptional season. Going up against tough teams in the VOL and AAA Leagues, the Buffaloes respectively ended their season with a 7-2 overall and a 4-2 league record. This was enough to clinch a two way tie for the top spot on the VOL ladder with cross town rival, East Union.

Manuel Sequeira and Kelly Ellifritz led the Manteca backfield with their blinding speed. Gary Louie, the team's quarterback proved to everyone that the Little Buffs could not only run but pass as well. Adding to the depth of the back field was Phillip Volk. Head Coach Randy Gaines remarked, "I was really pleased with the total team unity and spirit that these boys had."

The Longest Yard

What started out as a deadly nightmare, turned into a wonderful dream. After four frustrating losses to top-ranked Tracy (41-0) St. Mary's (18-13), Nevada's number five rank, Procter Hug (23-6) and the Valley Oak League's Oakdale (21-7), the Buffs rotated that nightmare into a glorified season. Manteca was plagued with injury-ridden skilled people throughout the year. Ten year coach Walker Vick decided to get things rolling. The Buffaloes won their next two games, those victories came at the expense of Sonora (16-14) and an upsetting win over cross-town rival East Union (15-13). Manteca's biggest win was against Central Catholic (13-0) as the powerful defense, led by Frank Triglia, Robbie Steves, and down linemen Don Neuner, Jeff Tilton, and Art Limas, held CC to 57 yards. The Buffalo's offense was powered by leading rusher Louis Small, Scott Morris, and tight-end Eric Duren.

The Dirty Dozen (minus one)

One of the fastest growing sports around school was soccer. Teams were made up of both Varsity and JV and much hard work and sweat were involved in practices every day after school.

The teams included once again both boys and girls. The girls added enthusiasm and spirit to the team, something the boys couldn't add.

Mr. DeRosi displayed fine coaching ability with the Varsity team. DeRosi was aided by UOP student, John Gilstrap. Mr. Fix coached the JV team to a successful season.

(1) Manteca High gymnastics team included assistant coach Jill Pinto, Julia Simpson, Jenny Harper, Lori Limas, Annette Breshears, Karen Maddex, Kathy Wilkinson, Laura Gomes, Kelly Lesser, Dana Johns, Dayna Novacek, Kelly Forrest, Coach Pat Martinson, Lesia Raichel, Jennifer Mendoza, Gina Pinto, Donna Simpson, Sayona Gotschall, and Leslie Harp. Flipper

Adding another championship to Manteca High's trophy case, was the 1978 gymnastics team. Ribbons were given to the girls for all around one through ten and individual ribbons one through five. After having meets with Oakdale, Tracy, Sonora, and East Union, Dana Johns and Gina Pinto qualified for sub-sections and section.

Varsity team members were Debbie Azevedo, Terri Holden, Laura Gomes, Dana Johns, Donna Simpson, Jenny Harper, Judy Ftacek and Gina Pinto. The beginners were Lori Limas, Annette Breshears, Kathy Wilkinson, Dayna Novacek, Leslie Harp, and Lesia Raichel. Novice level were Jeanie Riddle, Julia Simpson, Karen Maddex, Kelly Lesser, Kelly Forest, Jennifer Mendoza, and Sayona Gotschall. Pat Martinson coached these three divisions. Beginner and Novice competed with compulsory routines and the Varsity used their own imagination to make up routines. The ladies performed either floor exercise, vault, uneven bars, or on the beam.

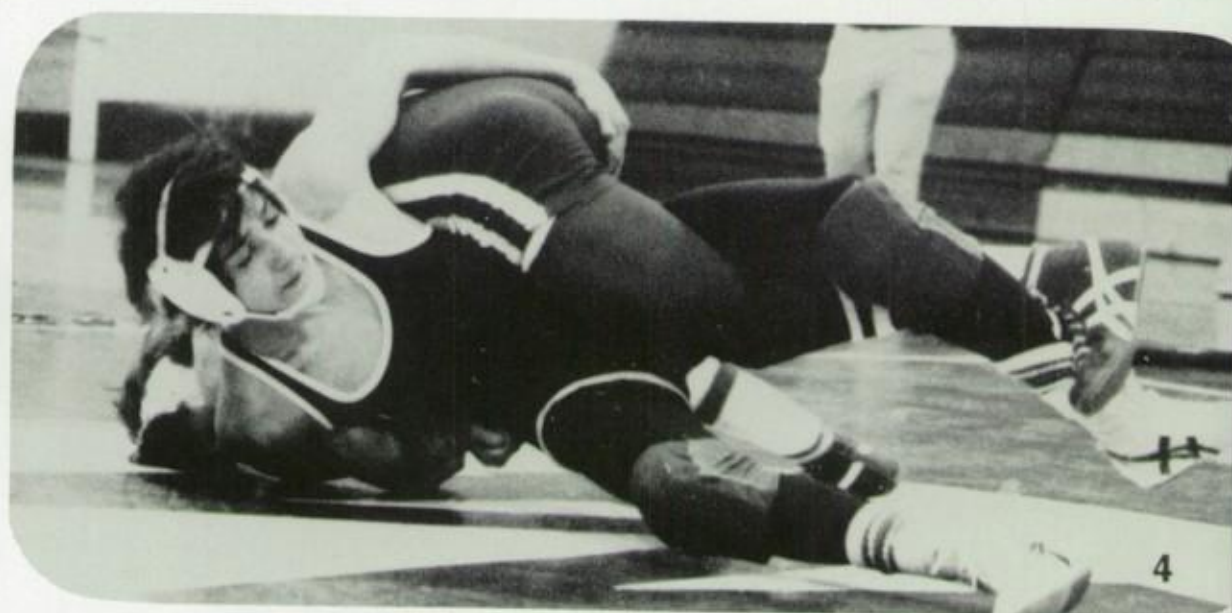

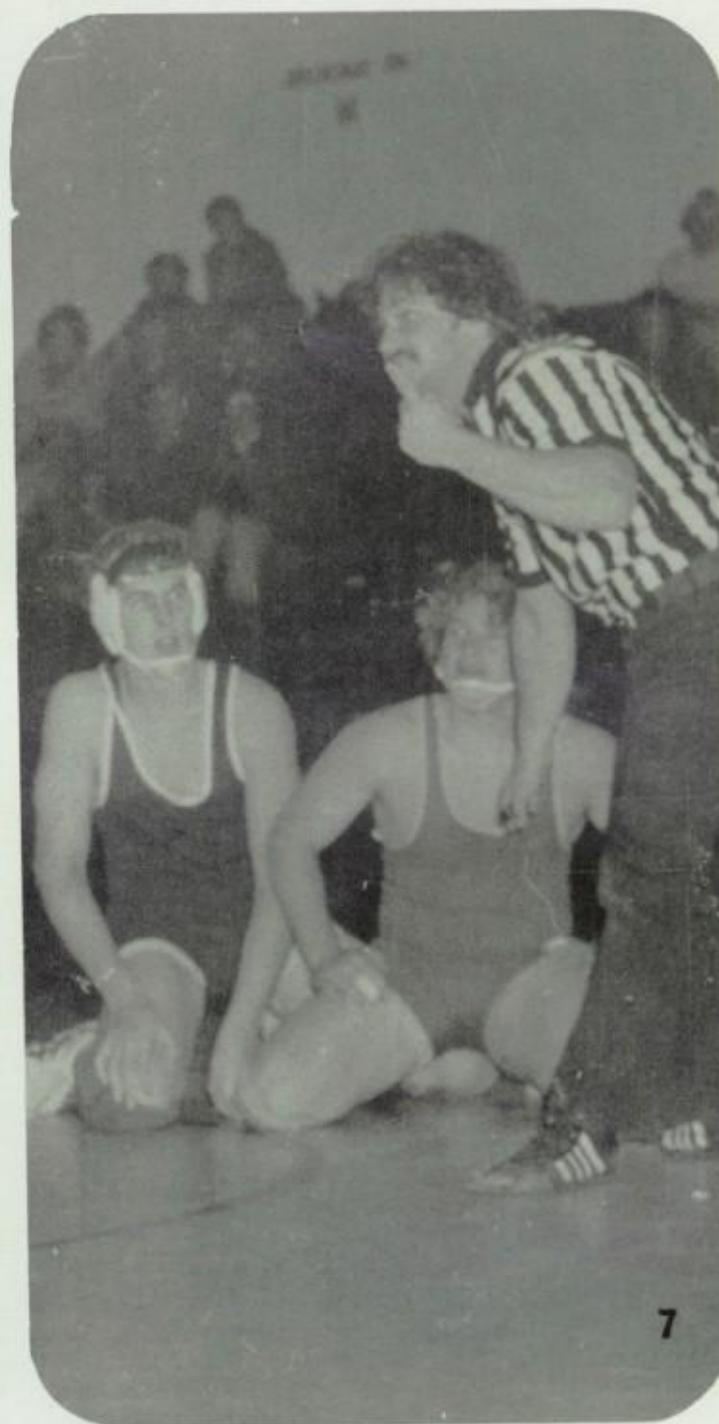

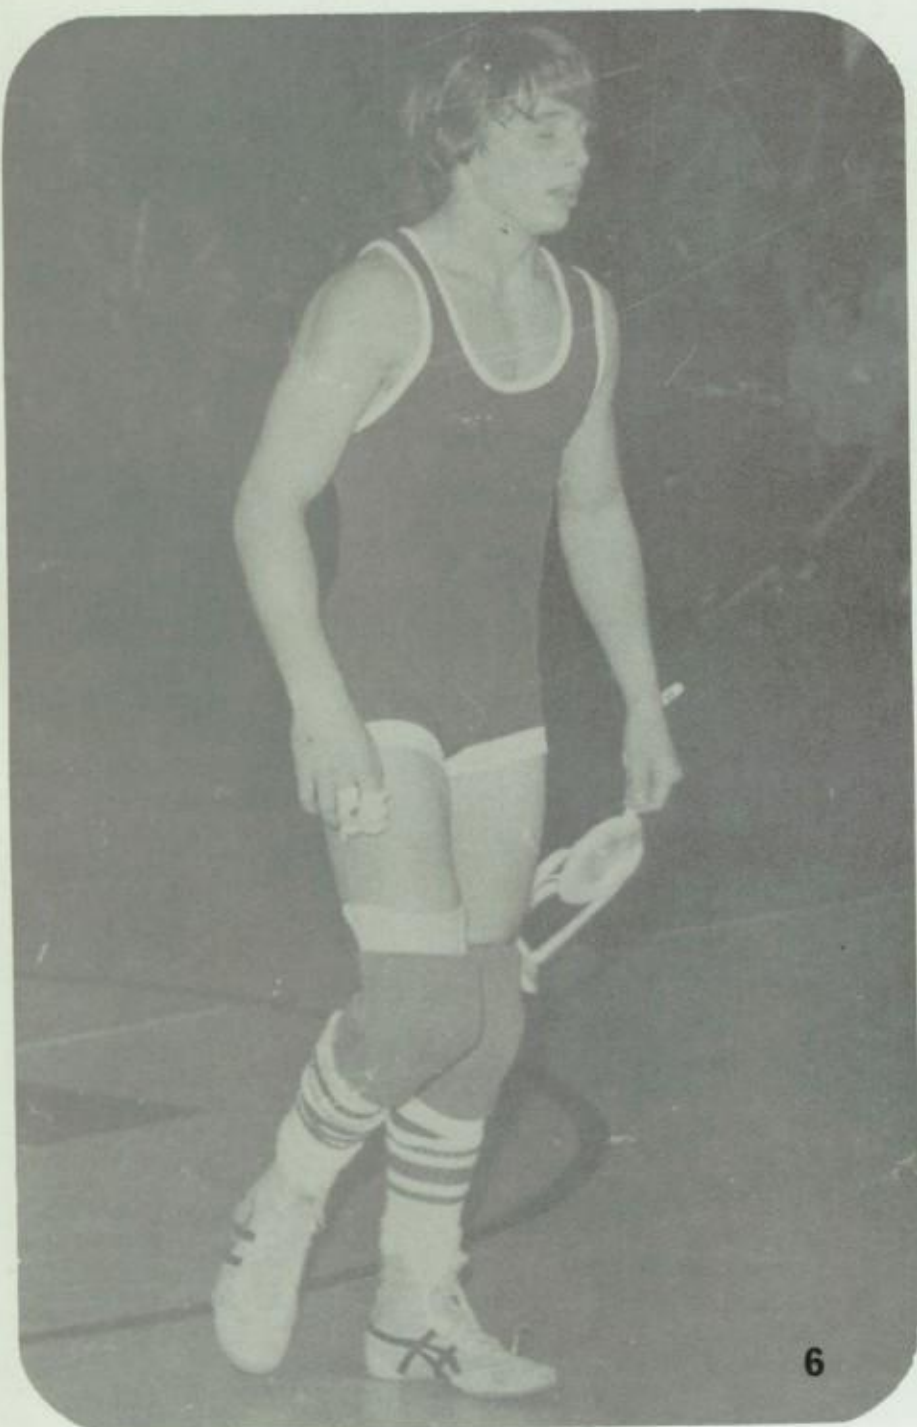

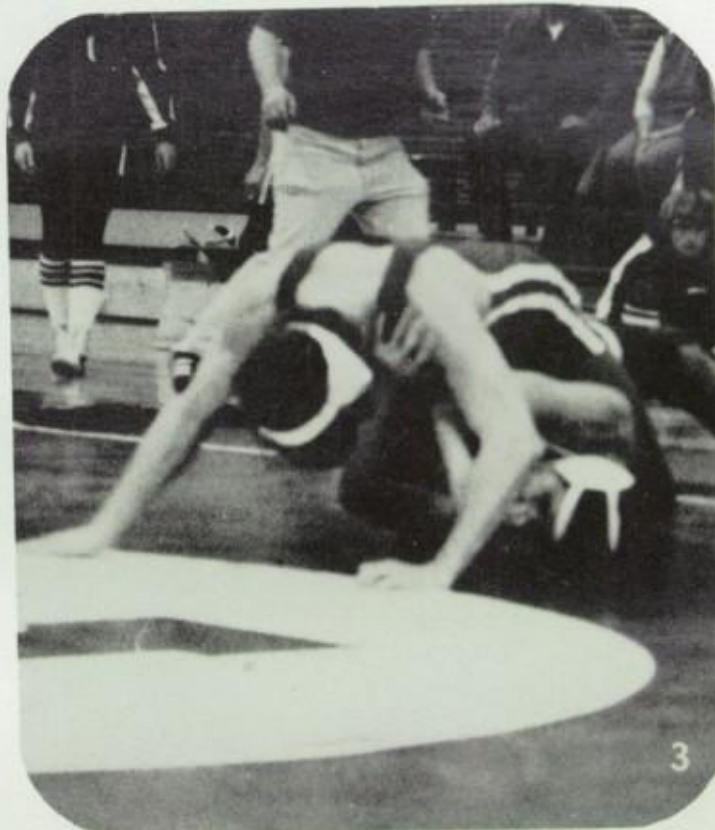

Body Snatchers

Under the talented supervision of Coach Mick Founts and his two assistants Art and Richard Serros, the Buffalo's Wrestling team made a name for itself in VOL competition.

Small in number, the Buff wrestlers flaunted their ferocity at many meets throughout their domain of superior influence. With a three pound weight limit halfway through the season many of the wrestlers could rest and eat easily, not afraid of making weight at their next meet. Wrestlers who did an outstanding job in their weight class were Jeff Pine, Joel Stapleton, and Ty Winder. These people proved that good things do come in small packages.

Lucky Ladies

Lorraine Goff's Varsity Girls Squad had a terrific season compared to the past years. Coach Goff said the reason for the change was that the team's attitude had changed. Members had a positive outlook on playing the game instead of a negative one. Another reason was that the Varsity Squad had a good bench.

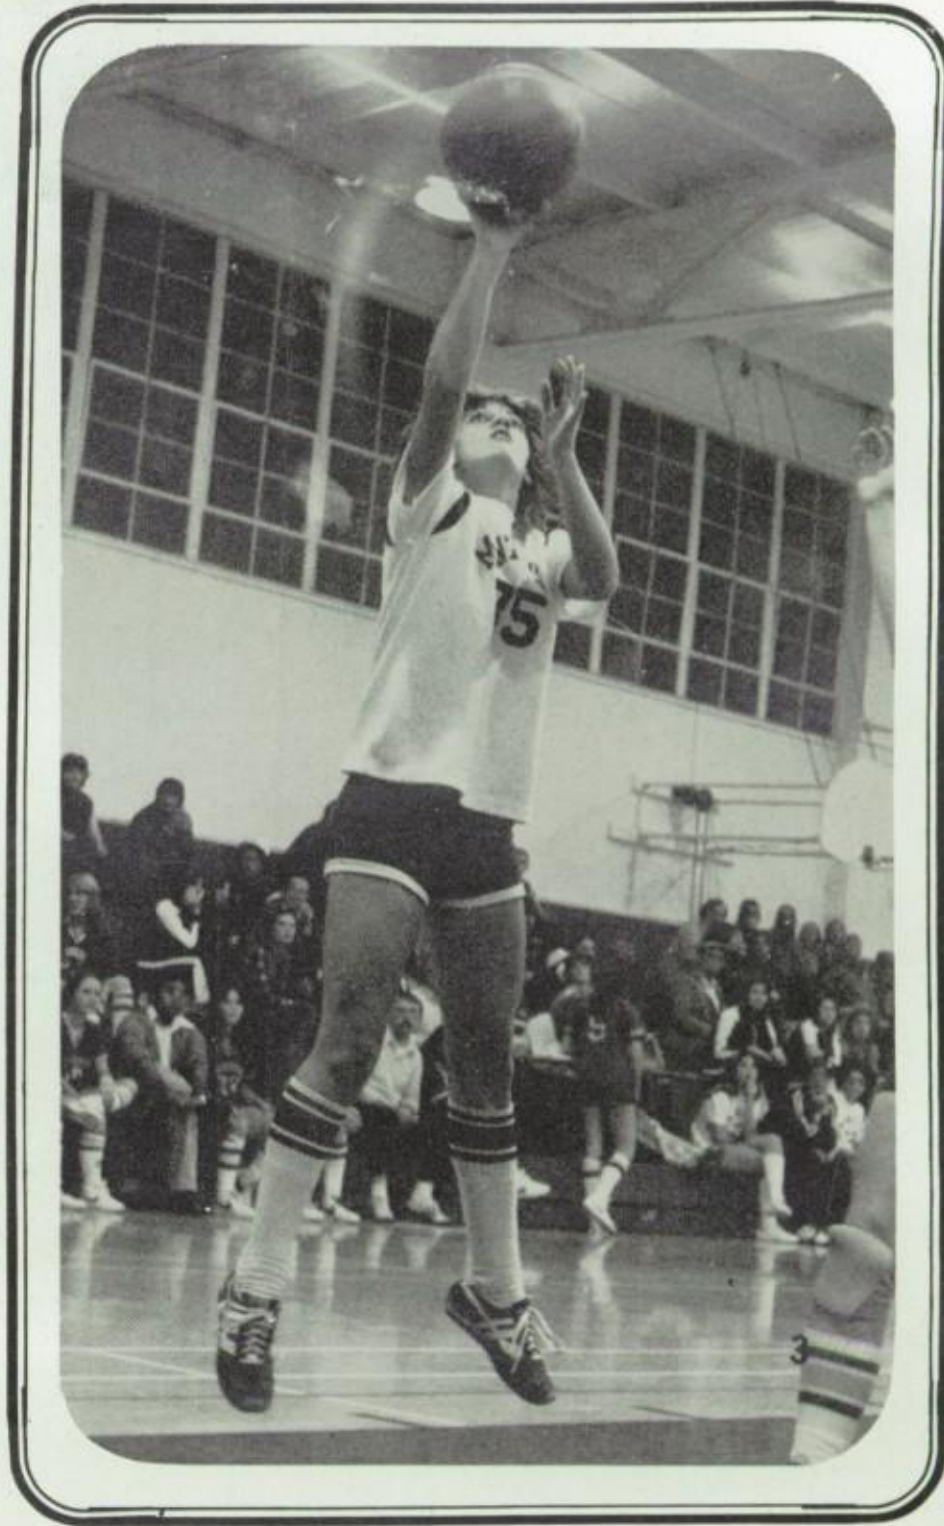

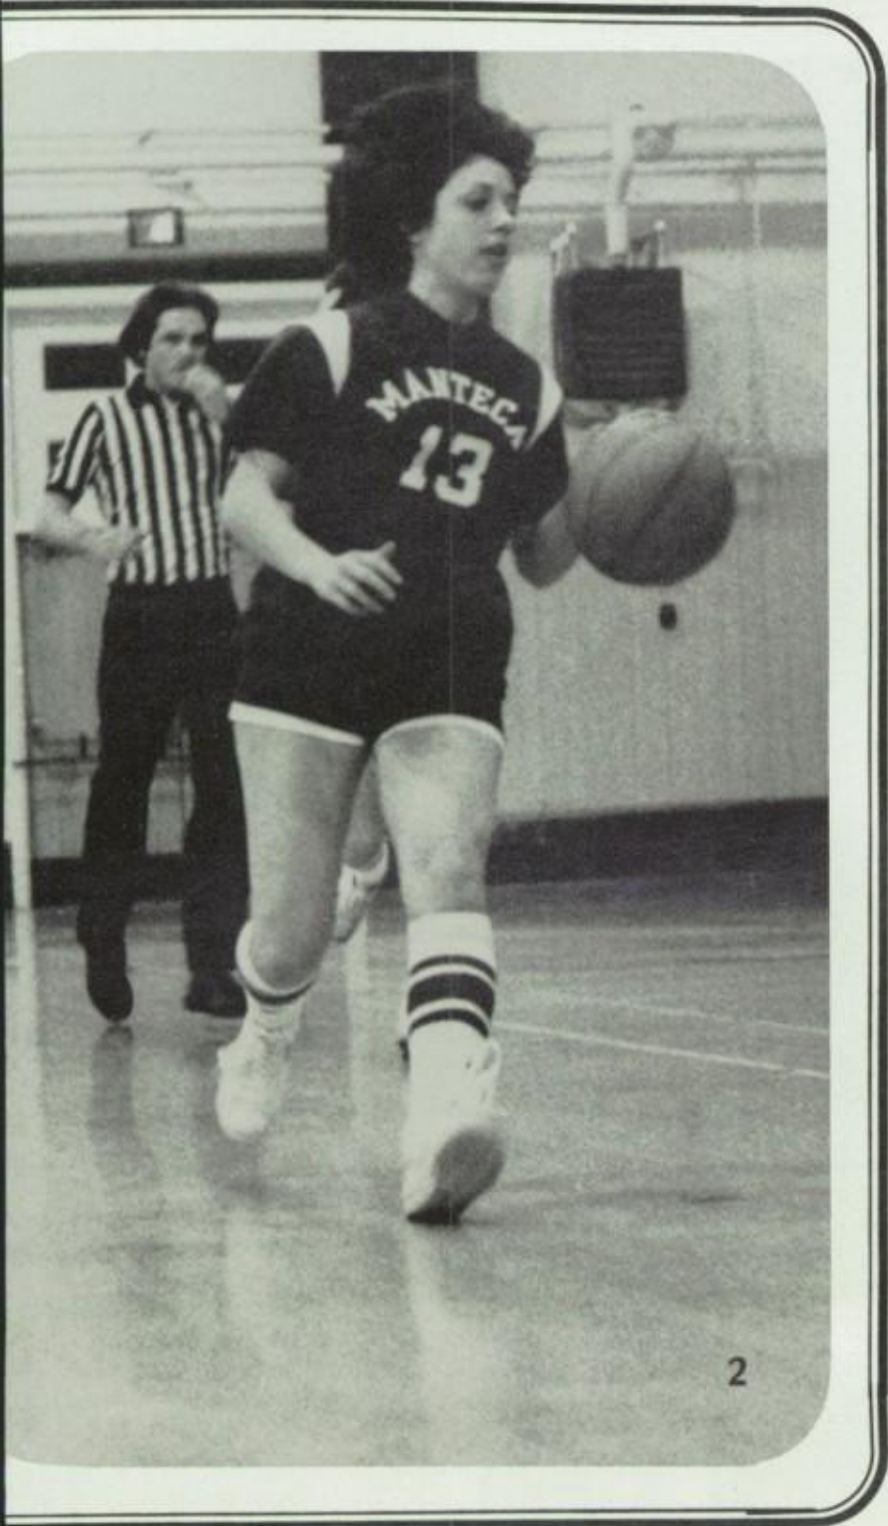

Top scorer was Karen Steves, followed by Denise Negley and Maria Williams. Gigi Cook led in rebounding. Miss Goff stated that everyone improved from last year, and Freshmen Maria Williams and Donna Foster did a fantastic job.

Coach Butch Linn guided the Girls' JV Team through the 1978-79 season. Martha Dias led the JV Team in points, followed by Broni Steves. Top rebounder was Trina Elam. The JV Team also had a good bench of substitutes which was helpful.

(1) Linda Morenzone concentrates on aiming the ball in the right direction as Livingston opponents try to block it. (2) Karen Steves sprints down the court leaving Ceres opponents in the dust. (3) Penny Faulkner puts the ball up for two points. Hooper

High-scoring Baby Buffs captured first in a Manteca Freshman Holiday Tournament with wins over Turlock and Tracy.

The Baby Buffs, coached by Mike Henry, displayed a fast break offense and pressed man to man defense throughout the season. The team averaged over 60 points per game. Leading scorers for the Baby Buffs were forward Reno Cook and center Craig Conaway with a 14 point average per game. James Matas, the play making guard, was the third leading scorer with a 9 point average. Guard Doug Codog and forwards Tony Menezes and Manuel Nordell each scored an average of 6 points.

Conaway was the dominant rebounder with Nordell, Cook, Menezes, and Pat Schimke also top rebounders. Matas led in assists but was not the only fine guard. Codog, Casey Jay and Greg Toy also had assists and applied the tough pressure defense that ignited the fast break.

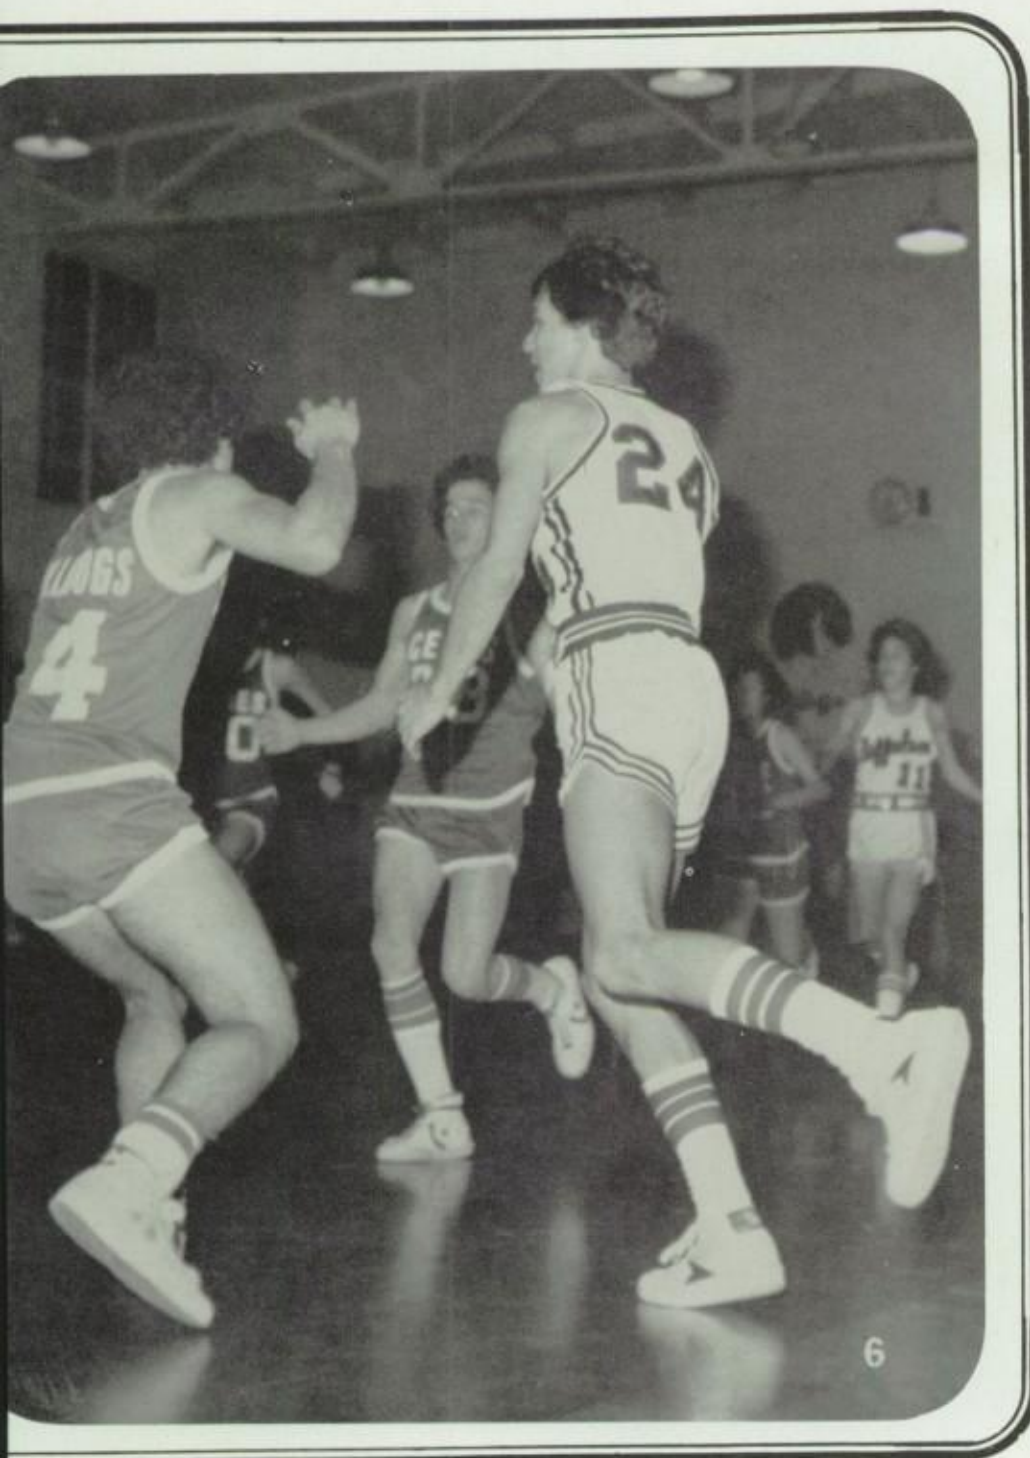

One On One

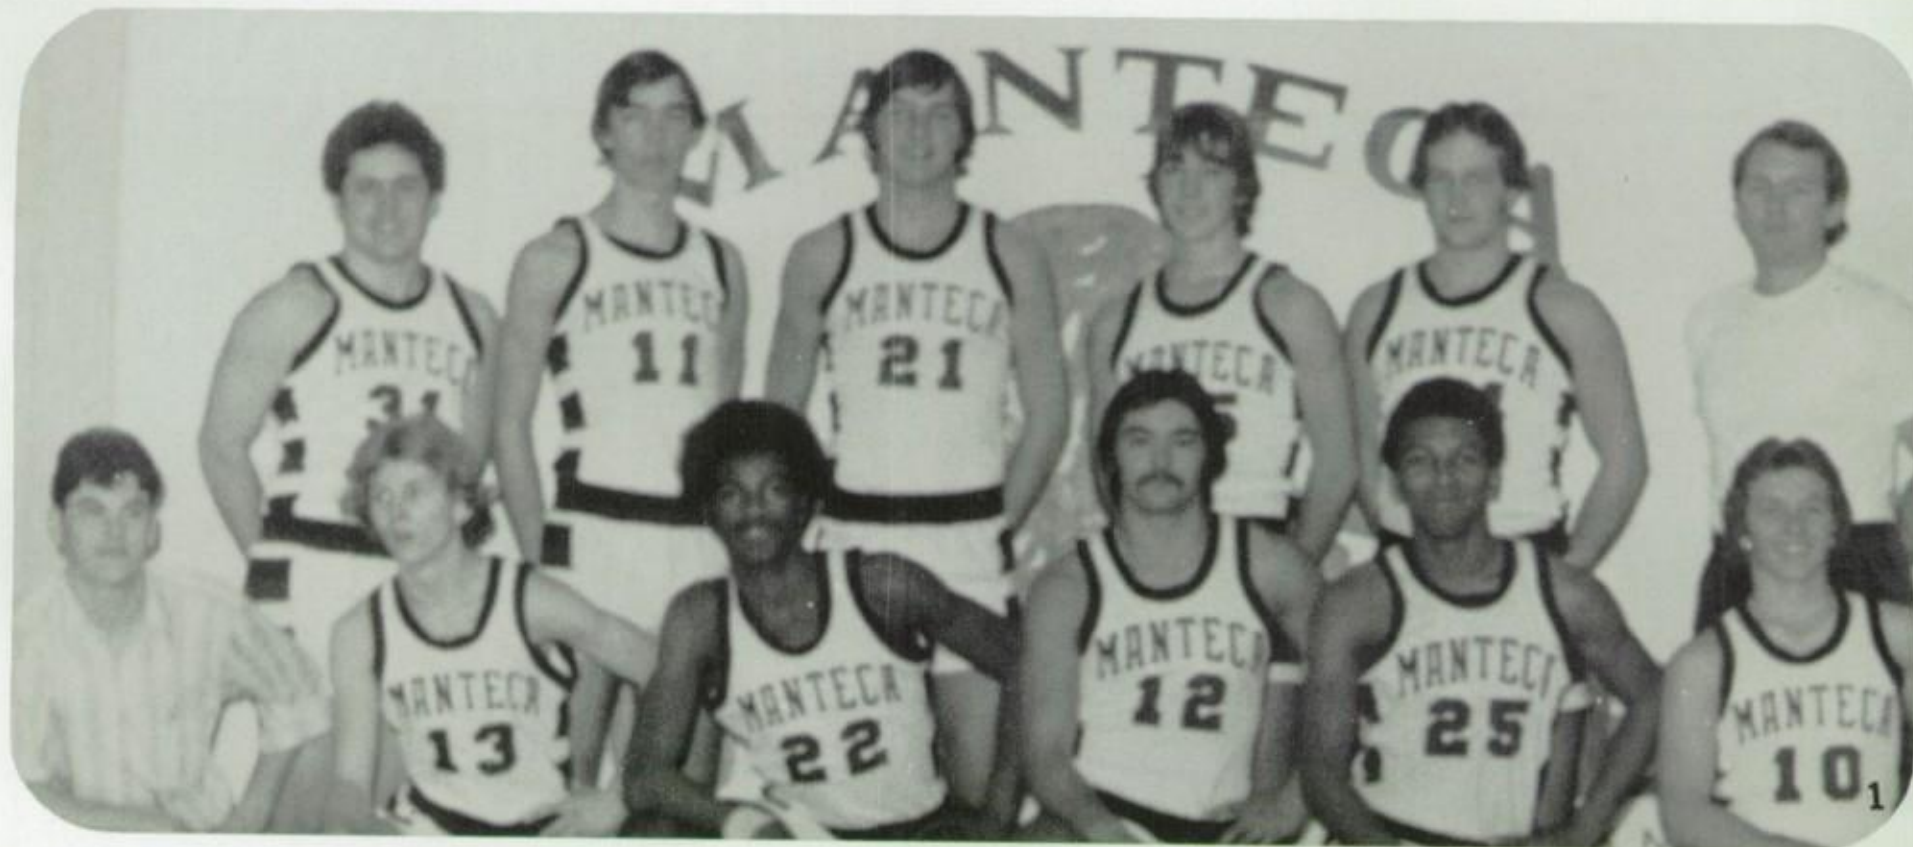

Coach Steve Winters led his team of aggressors to a strong finish in the VOL after a mid-season slump.

Sharpshooters Jody Ruble and Mike Delmanowski led the Little Buffs in tight situations. Supplying the muscle was Mike Cimioli, Ron Bylow and Clint Warren. Although suffering through a short mid-season losing streak, the Little Buffs proved they could win. There were bright spots as the team took the East Union Invitational and stormed to the title in their own tournament. Coach Steve Winters expressed his feeling by saying, "I was impressed with the total team unity this group of young men had." The Little Buffs proved to everyone that they were WINNERS!

(1) Kurt Brown swishes two over Ceres' defenders. (2) Strong forward, Jan Manges tips in two points. (3) Todd Hardcastle gets set to make an aggressive rebound. (4) Mike Delmanowski borne the net with a patented jump shot. (5) Soaring high and under pressure Ron Bylow adds to the score. (6) Pressure is what Jody Ruble causes as the ball is batted away. (7) Kirk Brown lays the ball in despite being pressured.

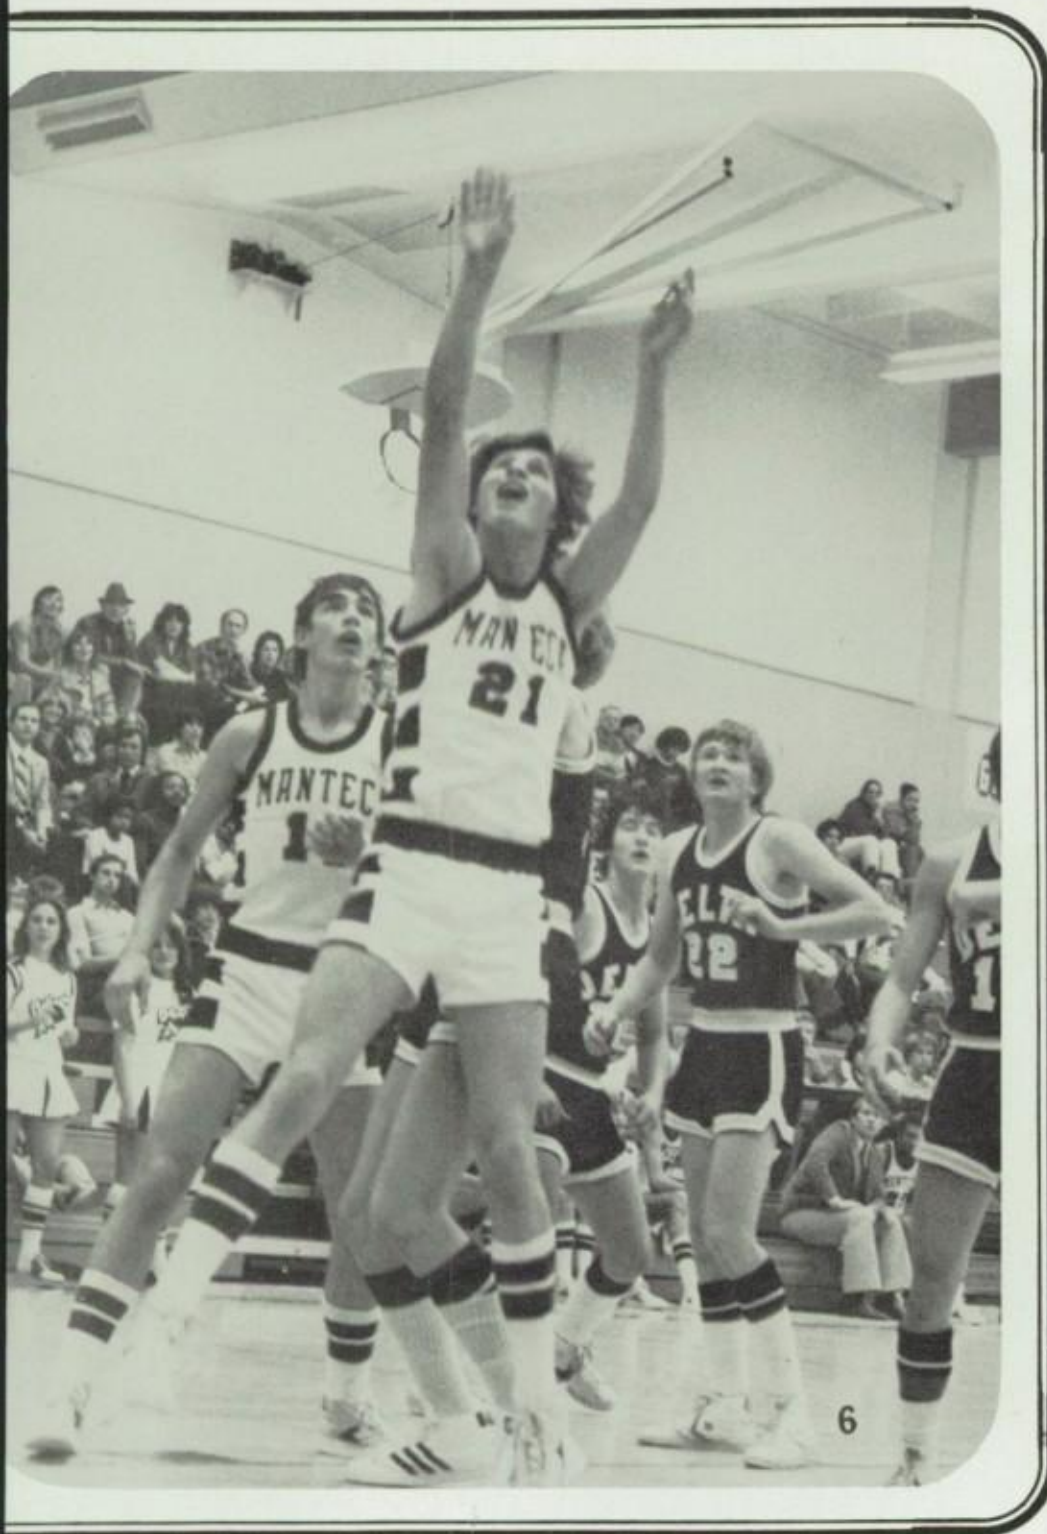

A Boy 10 Feet Tall

Before the Basketball season, Coach Pat Douglass told a local paper that he had to work with what he had. It looked like it worked out well, as the Buffaloes surprised many fans with stunning wins over Sonors (77-76) and East Union (56-54). Jim Harris and Randy Ross carried most of the load. Center Mitch Crawford surprised many locals with his quick inside post moves and outside jumpers. Fred Nelson and Lance Cook usually had the hot hands when needed for some sure points. But, the sign of Manteca's strength was the experienced bench. In many games, Coach Douglass would credit his bench for the tight defense in clutch situations.

All The President's Men

With President Debie Bishop taking the reins of the Student Body, 1978-79, Student Council drove towards high success. Dayna Novacek, Vice President, Dori Overstreet Secretary and Rosie Espinola Treasurer rounded out the top main officers. The Commissioners were: Jeff Neeley (Finance), Jeff Tilton (Student Affairs), Susan Ireland (Public Relations), Frank Triglia (Publicity), Keith Jackson (Athletics), Don Mac Cready (Clubs), Cindy Rundell (Rallies and Assemblies) and Lyn Rundell (Activities). The Presidents from each class balanced out the voting procedures.

The legislative branch of the school was Student Congress. A representative from each 2nd period class was selected to go to the meetings which were held bi-monthly, and reported back to their class. Some issues discussed were: academic achiever could receive a block letter and they also passed the school budget. They tried to pass a resolution that would let cheerleaders try out for only 2 years of their high school career, but like any other change in the constitution it must pass student council. The Student Congress leaders were: Chairperson Debbie Franscella, Vice-Chairperson Donna Simpson, Sergeant of Arms Robbie Steves and Secretary was Linda Morenzone.

The Man And His Son

Parents at Manteca High were involved with the Athletic Boosters. The Boosters were led by President George Azevedo and Jane Lewis, secretary.

During the football season meetings were held every Tuesday night. The Boosters discussed money raising projects and were free to ask any questions of the coaches. If it was impossible for the coaches to get funds from the school, they would ask the boosters to help raise money for the athletic teams.

Some of the money making projects were to have an October steak dinner and dance at the MRPS hall. They also had the fall, winter and spring sports banquets. With their profits they provided uniforms and equipment for all athletic teams.

(3) Mr. McCreath, Mr. Triglia, Mr. Jackson and Mr. Scriven discuss money making projects. (6) Coach Mathis looks amazed after watching some football films. (7) President George Azevedo smiles as one of the other members come up with a crazy idea.

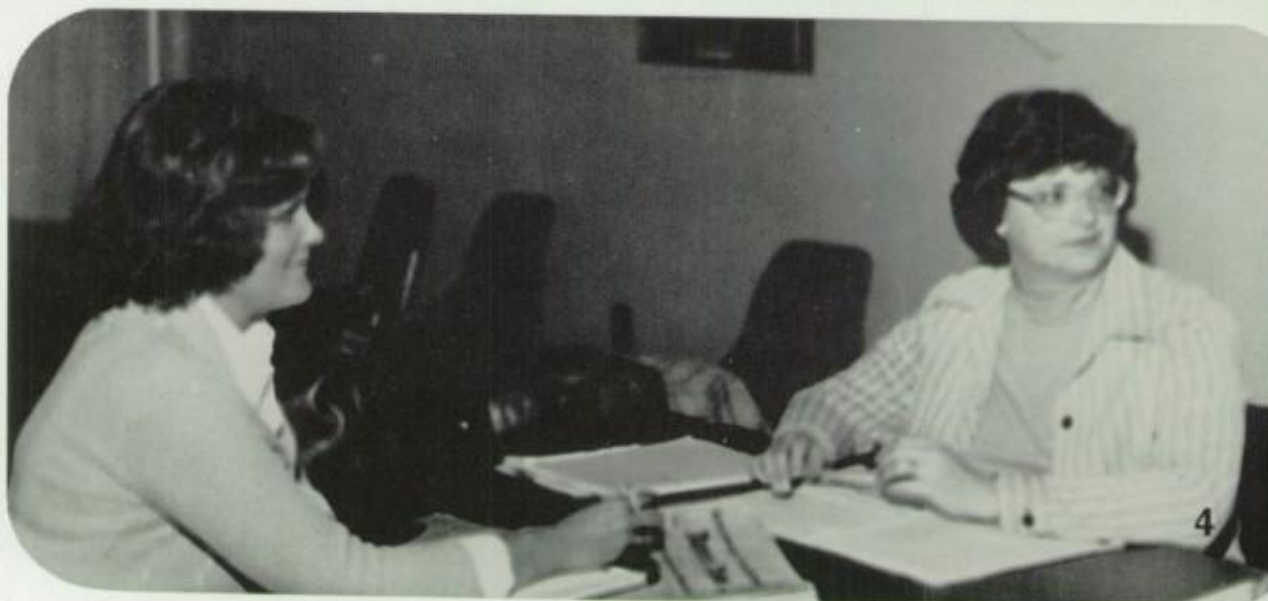

The Parent Trap

PTSA, the Parent, Teacher, Student Association, has been part of the school since 1976. The PTSA's interest in legislation helps get laws concerned with the school passed not only locally but state and nation wide. They kept communications open by providing the public with information needed for the benefit of the students.

The PTSA has for the past two years been trying to raise the funds for a school identification stone. The stone is to be placed in front of the school.

Acting as President was Ann Evans, Vice-Presidents were Doug and Mary Horton and Ed Brasmer, Secretary was Sandy Tutak, Treasurer, Carolyn Shackel, Historian Telka Grovell and Auditor, Carol Asher.

(1) Mary and Doug Horton work out ways to support the school. (2) President Ann Evans discuss the minutes with Ed Brasmer. (4) Mary Horton and Mrs. Evans discuss money making projects. (5) Mr. Brasmer, Ann Evans, and the Hortons are the officers of the PTSA.

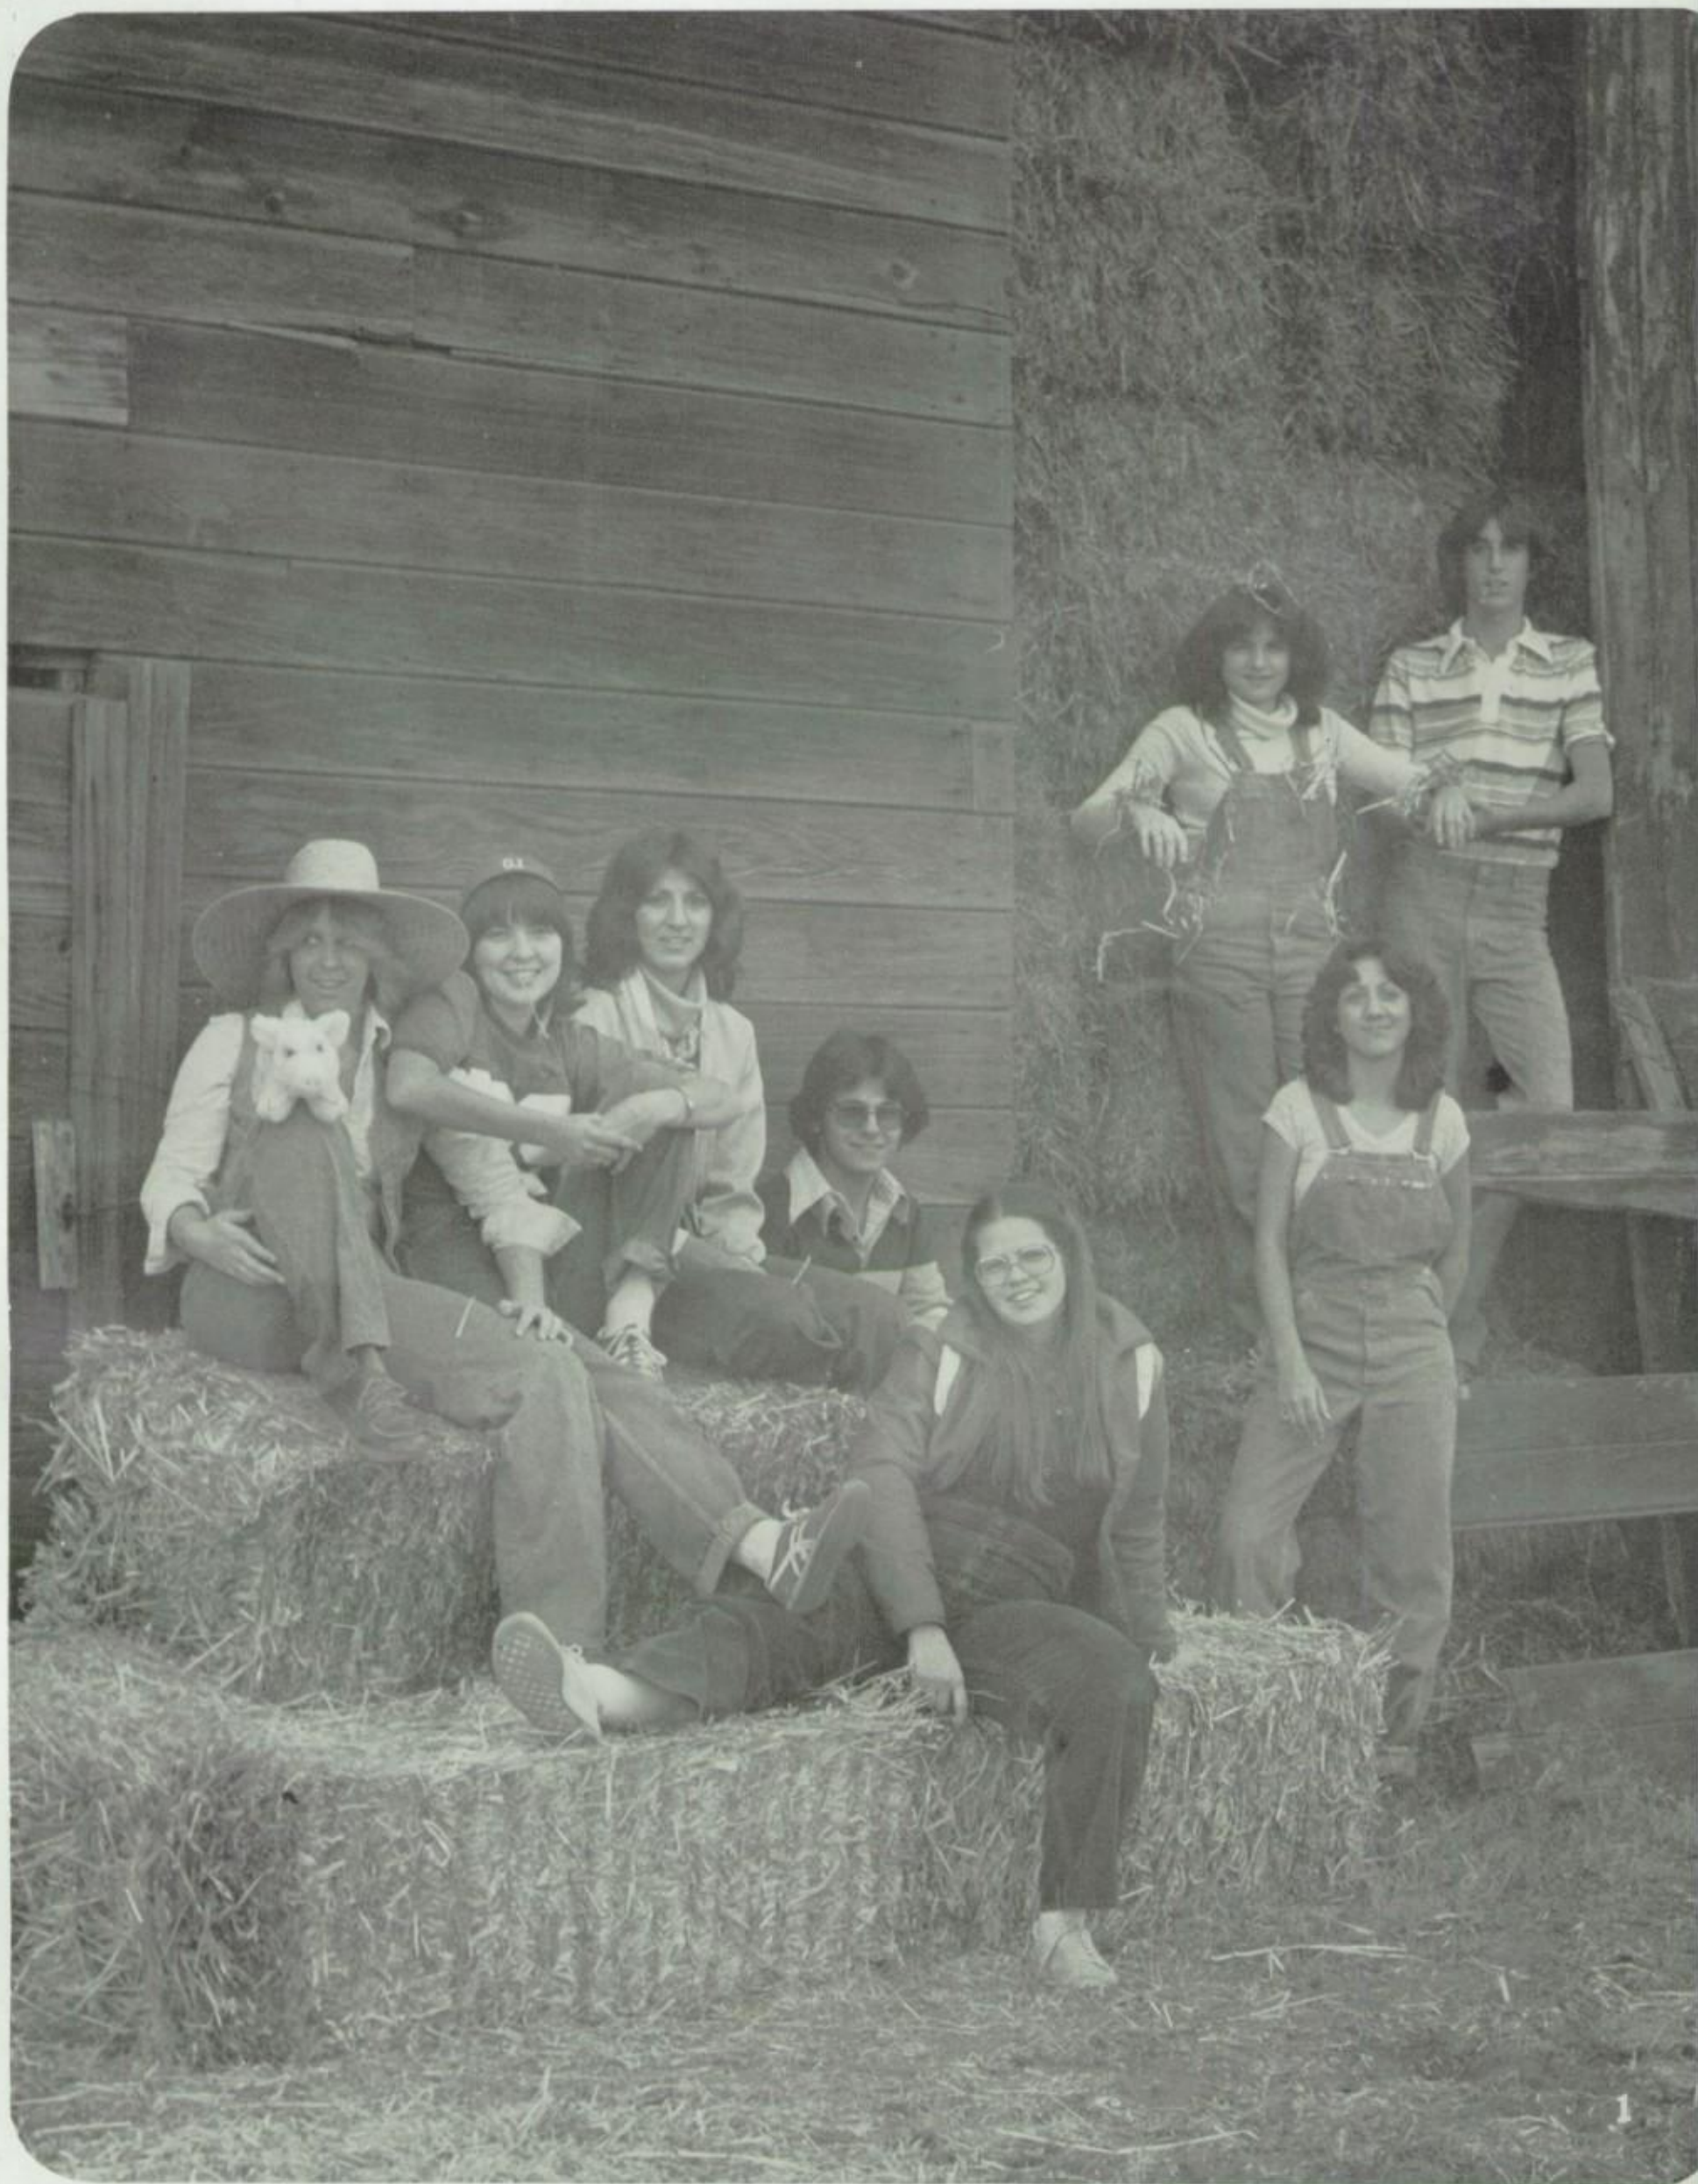

Spirits

Annually Manteca and East Union have their rivalries. At the beginning of the year it's football, where the whole town comes out to support their favorite team. Then there is soccer, the Bobby Bladwin, a most emotional experience. The middle of the year rolls round and basketball is here. The psyching up of each team along with the psyching out is very important. The rally for the EU basketball game was an eventful one. The students were entertained by the jazz band, the mascots, along with a first: the flag girls. It also had its usuals for the year like the spirit leaders, rally commissioner Cindy Rundell, and of course Jeff Tilton. All the preparation and spirit was well worth it at MHS because the 'mighty' Buffs won another game against the 'unfortunate' EU Lancers with a score of 56 to 45.

(3) The respectable jazz band sits watching the rally before getting the cue to play. (7) Mascot Debbie Francella arouses spirit in the crowd by performing a skit with partner Cathy Littlejohn.

Help

Despite all the natural hazards of putting together the yearbook, the staff "did it!" Many long hours in and out of school were spent sweating over copies and layouts. With the help of pizza, t.v., cokes, radio, and potato chips the long hours spent in the photo lab were a lot of fun.

A disco dance was sponsored by the Tower staff to raise money. The money went toward the expense of putting together the book.

Paper Chase

Stanford University of Palo Alto was the setting for the annual school newspaper camp. Co-editors Diane Drury and Karen Olsen baked and sold 160 loaves of bread to pay their way to camp.

The Buffalo was put out bi-weekly with the help of the Manteca Bulletin. The Buffalo staff did the writing and artwork while the Bulletin printed the paper.

Staff members were; co-editors, Diane Drury and Karen Olsen, Eva Stacy, Carol Robertson, Toni Maier, Brenda Vayer, James Kegley, Carol Vest, Don MacCready, Brenda Handy, Bill Corder, John Mathews, Tammy Virden, Annette Breshears, Tracy Candini, Matt Crow, Tammy Marples, Tim Niswonger, Dori Overstreet, Broni Steves, Sandy Tutak and Karen West. Advisor was Sharyl Burgeson.

Block M Members were involved in many activities, with co-presidents, Robbie Vasquez and Andrea Negley. Secretary was Karen Steves.

Activities included decorating a pick-up as an entry in the Homecoming Parade. They set up concessions stands at various sports events, but not with the traditional "junk food" but with nutritious goodies instead. The club sold football programs at MHS games. They also attended several professional sports events.

Block M's main purpose was to promote sports at MHS.

Advisors were Mr. Frost, Ms. Burgeson and Mr. Mathis.

The Fan

If you were at a football game and wondering why a certain section of the stands was yelling louder than the rest you were hearing the Pep Club in action.

The Pep Club sold spirit ribbons and basketball buttons to raise money. They also decorated the field for home football games.

Leading the Pepsters was Tami Jacobi, President. Advisors of the Pep Club were Mr. Conners and Mr. Pimentel.

The Framed

With the help of many able bodies, Tower got through another year. Photo Club helped develop and print many of the pictures used in the book.

They printed postcards of the football team, cheerleaders, and school campus to sell in the student store.

Their biggest money making protect was Football concessions. At home games, you could see members of the Photo Club shivering to please excited fans.

Officers of Manteca High Studio were Bret Ivey, President, Sam Garcia, Vice-President, and Jackie Flowers, Secretary.

(1) Advisor Bill Forbis and President Bret Ivey are a regular sight at football concessions. (4) Jackie Flowers works in the stabilizer. (6) Bret Ivey checks out his negatives.

Pretty Maids

For the first time ever, the Mat Maids were under the direction of a parent. Janice Mayfield has been an active wrestling supporter for the past five years. This year she had the added responsibility of the Mat Maids.

Mat Maids were Gloria Limas, Kim Williams, Cheryl Hardcastle, Reba Johnson, Cindy Dunbar, Debbie Cotterell, Robin Allsup, Tammy Gagnon and alternate, Tammy Ostonal. Mat Maids kept score for the wrestlers at matches and tournaments.

(5) Shaun Peterson, Robert Balentine, Bill Daniels, Donna Grove, Maria Vanzzini, JoAnn Donati, Lana Woffard, Julie Waldvogel and Diane Drury are all members.

Sound Of Music

This year's mixed chorus started out on a different note under the new chorus director, Greg Souza. They studied pop, secular, and sacred music. Memorizing song after song, note after note the 22 chorus members developed a harmonious 'sound of music'. Not only did they prove their singing ability, they showed their salesmanship by selling posters, stationery, candy, and putting on a car wash.

The hard work and sore throats proved worthwhile as they performed excellently at their concerts. They brought Christmas spirit to the convalescent homes as they caroled.

(3) Rhonda Wofford hums the background music for the chorus. (4) Steve Lyn nervously awaits for his chance to sing. (6) Margaret Reives, Brenda Daniels, and Kim Goins yodel Christmas carols. (7) Singsters Toni Maier, Vonnie Perry, Patty Gutierrez, and Melody Endsley exercise their vocal chords.

Behind the Green Door

The Key Club decided to do what other Key Clubs have done, allow females to join the club. Dayna Novacek, DeAnn Neeley and Lyn Rundell were the first to join.

Key Club was in good hands under leadership of Jack Norris, Randy Pinnelli, Bill Corder and Ron Dahlseid.

In order to attend the Key Club Convention in Sacramento members had car washes. Much of the money raised went to needy causes.

(1) Tim Ferris, Dave Coldren, Bill Corder and Grant Breshears wash cars to raise money. (2) Key Club President, Jack Norris signs out autographs. (5) Key Club members, J.D. Little Women

What is "S" Club? It is a service oriented club involving high school girls. Their year was filled with many activities such as making Thanksgiving baskets for Love Thy Neighbor.

A spring membership drive was held to increase the declining membership. See's suckers were sold at football games to raise money for service activities.

The Club was led by officers Sherrie Martin, president, Dorris Carrillo, vice-president, Julie Greene, secretary, Linda Seegars, corresponding secretary, and Elise Keddie, treasurer. Mrs. Lange was the advisor.

(3) Tami Ostonal and Julie Greene listen to the discussion at the first social meeting of the year. (4) Debbie Cotterell looks on in astonishment at the activities being planned. (7) "S" Club president Sherrie Martin displays her leadership qualities while advisor Flo Lange looks on.

“F.M.”

Along with Mr. John James, President; Larry Vogan, Vice-President; Forrest Edwards, Treasurer; Secretary Mike Beasley and Sergeant at Arms Kurt Groznik made the Radio Club something special. Their main goal was to achieve a “Hams” license. This included a trip to San Francisco to take the FFC and Morris Code exams. Ham radio is a type of radio that can send messages around the corner or halfway around the world.

They went on field trips including a USA Amateur Field Day in Sacramento, sponsored by the American Radio Relay League. They also had a drawing to raise money during the spring, for radio supplies.

Issues And Answers

How did Prop. 13 effect school spending? . . . What were the cut backs? . . . What was done to counteract the cut backs? . . .

Prop 13 forced the Manteca School district to cut spending by 10%. Maintenance of grounds, building and large equipment suffered the most because of cut backs. While maintenance was infrequent, Prop 13 still had no effect on the students during the 78-79 school year.

Future spending was still in the uncertain stage, as the money was under state control. The state decides where any money will be spent.

The ready, willing, and able secretaries worked their fingers to the bone, answering demands from administrators and students.

Mrs. Alleen Mount has been able to survive 16 long years at MHS, as our attendance clerk. Mrs. Glendora Bennett came in a close second at 12 years. She was our clerk typist and a real toughie at the attendance window. Mrs. Pat Cook and Mrs. Jeanne Peterson worked with admits, filing, and typing.

Mrs. Helen Yost and Mrs. Dorothy Teunissen ran the front office. Mrs. Yost served as Mr. Brasmer's personal secretary which was a real gregarious job. Mrs. Teunissen was the accounting clerk and served MHS for seven years.

Mrs. Barbara Albert, who was always ready to lend a helping hand, was the secretary for the Career Center.

The Word

The English Department gave classes in Basic Communications and elective classes which include creative writing, drama, individual reading, journalism and others.

The department introduced a new method of teaching in the basic class. A team approach was used instead of the individual system. With this concept, the teaching is done by a team consisting of a teacher, a reading specialist, a teacher aide and a group of student teachers.

"This year's goals were to fully prepare the students for passing the Heartlaw English tests," said department head Robert Camden.

The Graduate

"79 is fine". The Super Seniors had a lot of work to do to hold the motto true. They started in the summer of '78 with bake sales and a car wash. During the year they were busy with a variety of other activities. The year started with selling class pins. At Christmas they sold kisses (mistletoe) and Valentines Day cookies. For Easter, flowers were sold. The spicy Seniors whipped up a batch of spaghetti to raise last minute money for Disneyland.

On the unusual side, Seniors sold class T-shirts with the names of all the members of the class of '79 printed on front. They also held a dating game. Six boys and six girls were chosen to play. The winners were given an all expense paid night on the town.

Hard working officers were: President Julie Cunial, Vice President Randy Pinnelli, Secretary, Leisa Smith, and Treasurer Sharon Butler.

Animal House

Candy Canes, Pies, & Bake sales, were some of the items the class of '80 sold to boost its graduation budget. Under the direction of President; Jim Detmers, with counterparts Gayle Hawthorne, Vice-President; Diane Micheletos, Secretary; and the money-minded Treasurer, Antoinette Machado. The Juniors were simply successful. Money raising wasn't the only activity the Juniors held, the old Rowdy Rooters formed again to cheer the varsity basketball team to victory. Many Rowdy Rooter meetings were held out at a certain area in Manteca. That area was called Bluto's. Bluto was a character's name in the major motion-picture, Animal House.

The Bold Ones

A bake sale, a Christmas tree pickup and a summer carwash were just a few ways the sophomore class got underway with money making projects. Another project was hosting a dance where they made $700.

The sophomore class proved its spirit when its Homecoming float won first place. To wind up the exciting homecoming week, the sophomores won the spirit trophy.

Leading the class of '81" was President Rena Lundgren, vice-president Becky McAlary, secretary Lucy Rosa and treasurer Sue Roux.

The Innocent

After the freshman initiation, the process of electing class officers of "82" began. The cheerleading tryouts were linked with the official elections. The results of these elections were: Gina Roberts, President; Todd Wolfe, Vice-President; Ann Walters, Secretary and Cathy Neuman was the treasurer. The cheerleaders were Sandy Saenz, Gina Roberts, Janice Morenzone and Sayona Gotschall.

The freshman class was busy as it entered a well built float in the homecoming parade and sponsored the first basketball aftergame dance.

(1) Freshman class officers Cathy Neuman, treasurer, Todd Wolfe, Vice-President Ann Walters, secretary and Gina Roberts President. (2) Freshman girls busily fold flowers for their float. (3) Laura McDonald fluffs flower for the freshman float. (4) Gina Roberts explains the fund-raising activities planned for the freshman class. (5) Sandy Saenz smirks as she hands over some wires to another freshman. (6) Julia Simpson is amused by the suggestions brought up at the class meeting. (7) Freshman skit proves that the Baby Buffs stick together.

Steve,
Jo & really nice
guy I met in history.
It's been really great knowing you! Hope all your years a MHS are great. Take care of yourself this summer and don't go to too many parties!! Good luck in all you do.
